BLICKENSTAFF FAMILY HISTORY

as written by D J Blickenstaff of Oakley, Ill for the Blickenstaff Reunion in 1925

First, I call attention to the family name, changes in spelling and prouncia- tion. Our history begins with the name Blickensderfer or Blickensdorrfer, then later to the more modern, and anglicized form of Blickenstaff. By some families, the original name is still retained.

The earliest known authentic information of the family is found in the land titles in the city of Speyer, the capital of the Rhimish province of Bavaria, Ger.

On Feb 12, 1716 an estate was conveyed by Ulrich Schneider to Anabaptist Blickensderfer. This estate has ever since remained in the possession of descendents of the Antabaptist and is now (1897) occupied by members of the family.

Tradition further says many Blickensderfers still reside in this vicinity.
The "Anabaptist" now is our first ancestor that we can trace to, no exact date is given for his birth, but it would seem from the purchase of this estate that the date would be about 1692.

It is known that he had six sons and that five of them came to America, the fifth son in this family was named Ulrich. I mention this one because he is in our direct family line.

Ulrich was born in Germany about 1731 or 33. He came to America with his elder brother, John, landing at Philadelphia Sept 9, 1749, on the ship St Andrew. He signed the declaration of allegiance, then required of all immigrants landing in Penn., and preserved in the Colonial records in Harrisburg. We can trace him in his early settled life to Lancaster and York Cos and later to Fredrick Co., Md. In 1763 he had definitely located in Morrison's Cove, Bedford Co., Penn. A letter is still extant, written by his nephew to a cousin in Germany, locating him religiously as a member of the Dunkard Society. He further describes him as a small man, with an extraordinary large beard grown to his eyes. The history names nine children in his family - the 6th one was Joseph born in about 1780 in Morrison's Cove, Pa. He probably spent his earlier years at the paternal home, afterwards drifted westward.

About 1805 with his brother John, he came to Montgomery Co., Ohio where about 1808 he married Barbara Wolf, the daughter of a well to do farmer, who owned considerable land on Wolf Creek, 4 miles west of Dayton. It is said he died in Jan 1818 at the age of 38 years. Was buried on the farm of Christian Shively, but no monument or other mark is there to designate his grave.

In 1834, the widow and children sold the Ohio farm, removed to Tippicanoe Co., Ind. There were six children in this family. The second son was Leonard, born about May 1, 1811, in Montgomery Co., Ohio. He married Catherine Ulery, born Oct 5, 1811. They had about 29 years residence in Tippicanoe Co., Ind and then moved to Macon Co., Ill in Apri 1856. He was a minister in the Church of the Brethren and died on Aug 24, 1869 - lies buried in the Frantz cemetery near Oakley, Ill. There were ten children born to this family - Barbara, John, Joseph and Jacob, who died in early childhood, Leonard, Solomn, Isaac, David and Lean ahd Catherine.

Five of these were living and four were present at the first Blickenstaff reunion in Decatur, Ill. Sept 1925.

The line of direct ancestry traces to Bavaria, Germany, and the line is: Leonard, Joseph, Ulrich, and the "anabaptist."

The American History begins with Ulrich, landing at Philadelphia, Sept 9, 1749 or 176 years from the Sept 1925.

"ANABAPTIST" BLICKENSDERFER (1692-1767) lived and died in Speyer, Germany, on the Rhine River south of Mannheim. This is the only ancestor we have record of prior to the family coming to America. He had 6 sons: Christian (1724-1800), John, a son, Jacob, Ulrich. and Jost (1735-1826).

ULRICH BLICKENSTAFF (only the third son and Christian retained the -sderfer spelling. The third son stayed in Germany). Ulrich came from Bavaria to Philadelphia about 1749. He had 9 children: Jacob, John, David, Peter, Abraham, Joseph, Susan and 2 more daughters.

JOSEPH BLICKENSTAFF, born about 1780 died 1818, married Barbara Wolf b. 1788, md in 1808. She died on April 1, 1857. They had 6 children: Catherine (b. Joseph 1805 he, with his brother, John, removed to Montgomery county, Ohio, where, about 1808, he married Barbara Wolf, the daughter of Leonard Wolf, a well-to-do farmer who owned considerable land on Wolf's Creek, about four miles west of Dayton. It is said this was a runaway match, Joseph obtaining his wife against her father's consent. However this may be, he settled on a farm granted by Mr. Wolf to his daughter, where he resided until his death, in January, 1818, at about 38 years of age. This farm, containing 160 acres, the Montgomery county records show, was in 1819 conveyed by Leonard Wolf to Joseph's heirs, reserving a life interest in favor of the widow. Joseph was buried on the farm of Christian Shively, who married one of his daughters, about three miles west of Dayton, but there is no monument or other mark to designate his grave. In 1834 the widow and children sold their farm in Montgomery county and removed to Tippecanoe county, Indiana. There is no record of her death. Their children were:

KUNS-Near LaPlace, Piatt Co., Illinois, September 22, 1875, our much beloved sister Catharine Kuns; aged 65 years, 7 mon. and 5 days. On the 23d she was followed to her earthly resting place by a large concourse of people. She was a member of the church for about forty-seven years. She had lived with her first husband, Christian Shively, twenty-nine years, seven months and twenty-three days; and with her second, John Kuns, four years, four months, and some days; and since she lived a widow. She leaves one daughter, grandchildren, and the church and neighbors to mourn the loss of a kind mother and sister. We can truly say that our loss is her gain; and though she is dead, her kidness and simplicity will be long remembered. Funeral discourse by the thren from II. Cor. II.5

Leonard Blickenstaff was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, May 11, 1811, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Blickenstaff. He married Catherine Ulery; to them were born ten children. Leonard was elected to the ministry in the Middle Fork church near Rossville, Indiana. The family moved to Macon County, Illinois, settling on a prairie farm near Oakley in April of 1856. The parents were charter members of the first church organized by the Brethren in Macon County, which is now the Oakley congregation. His ministerial service was limited because his vocabulary and learning was in the German language. He died August 24, 1869.

In 1855 LEONARD BLICKENSTAFF came from his home in Indiana to Danville by train, then across country to Macon county prospecting with a view of finding a home on the Illinois prairies. He purchased a half section of land lying south and east of where the village of Oakley is now located and returned home to prepare for the journey to the far western Illinois.

On April 3, 1856, three wagons carrying household goods, some farming implements, father, mother and the smaller children started westward. A small herd of cattle, a few horses, and colts were driven along side the wagon by the older sons.

On the afternoon of the third day they came through Monticello and across country — there were no roads — to the home of Daniel Kuns where Noah Stalder now lives.

They moved into a vacant house, ½ mile north of where the Berry School now stands. Here they lived until a new house was completed on their farm south of Oakley now known as the Noah Blickenstaff farm.

Leonard was a minister in The Church of the Brethren. Ten children were born in this family.

Barbara, Mrs. Isaac Wagoner, children: Leonard, Dan, Isaac, Amanda, Mrs. J. B. Metzger.

John, married to Cathern Kuns, children: Ida, Mrs. Jack Chichester, and Emma, Mrs. Daniel Simmons.

Joseph, married to Katie Reprogle, son: D. J.

Jacob died in early childhood.

Leonard, married to Susan Frantz, children: John, Levi, Joseph, and D. D.

Solomon, married to Mary Metzger, children: Andrew, Noah, Anna, Mrs. Will Root.

Isaac, married Barbara Cripe. Children: Katie, Mrs. Paul McClure, and Hannah, Mrs. W. T. Heckman, and Noah.

David, married Hannah Heckman and after her death, Hannah Brookins. Children: Mary, Mrs. George Robey, Minnie, Mrs. Earl Rexroad, Eldo, Ira, Lynn, Fanny, Mrs. Ray Bunch, Fern, Mrs. Leon England, and Ruth, Mrs. Russell Lictenwalter.

Leah, Mrs. John Shively. Children: Cora and Levi.

Catherine, Mrs. G. W. Sensenbaugh. Children: Lydia, Mrs. I. D. Heckman, Emma, and Jessie.

This family can trace direct ancestry to Bavaria, Germany. Its American ancestry begins with Ulrich, landing at Philadelphia, September 9, 1749.

Paul W. Miller, 69

PYRMONT — Paul W. Miller, 69, of Pyrmont, was pronounced dead on arrival at St. Elizabeth Hospital Medical Center in Lafayette at 8:18 a.m. Sunday, Sept. 24. Death was unexpected and due to natural causes.

Mr. Miller had served as president of Rossville Volunteer Ambulance Service for two years and on the Carroll County 4-H Board several years.

He farmed in the Pyrmont area most of his life, was an independent milk route driver hauling to Bordens in Lafayette and later Indianapolis. He retired in 1989 from Lox Equipment Co. in Delphi, where he had worked for 13 years.

Born Oct. 5, 1925, in Carroll County near Pyrmont, he was a life resident of the Pyrmont area. He married Alice I. Grassmyer on April 18, 1948, in Pyrmont, and she survives.

Mr. Miller was a member of Pyrmont Church of the Brethren, formerly serving in several church offices. He formerly was on the Pyrmont Cemetery Board and was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in Delphi.

Surviving with his wife are four sons, Dennis P. Miller of Pyrmont, Gary D. Miller of Holmes Beach, Calif., Donald J. Miller of Bradenton, Fla., and Andrew S. Miller of rural Rossville; two daughters, Karen S. Rothrock of Terre Haute and Mrs. Michael (Betty L.) Hatfield of Lafayette; two brothers, Doyle D. Miller of rural Delphi and J. Earl Miller of West Lafayette; two sisters, Mrs. Jack (Mary) Lentner of Delphi and Anna Mae Miller of Lafayette; a half brother, Kenneth Miller of Pyrmont; and a half sister, Mrs. Olive Bantz of Lafayette.

MILLER, Paul W.

Calling 4-8 p.m. Tuesday, Bodine-Brown Funeral Home, Rossville. Funeral 11 a.m. Wednesday, Pyrmont Church of the Brethren, Pastor Guy Studebaker officiating. Interment Pyrmont Cemetery. Thirteen grandchildren, 4 stepgrandchildren survive. His parents, Edward and Minnie Wagoner Miller, 3 half brothers, 2 granddaughters preceded in death. Memorials to Pyrmont Church of the Brethren.

BLICKENSTAFF, John (deceased), was for a number of years associated with important interests of Piatt County, especially at Cerro Gordo, although for a time prior to his demise, he was afflicted by trouble with his eyes which necessitated a partial retirement. He was born in Carroll County, Ind., November 19, 1835, a son of Leonard and Catherine (Ulery) Blinkenstaff, born and married in the vicinity of Dayton, Ohio. Following their marriage they moved to Indiana, settling near Lafayette, but subsequently moved to Macon County, Ill., buying land and farming it the remainder of their lives. The father died in 1866, and the mother in 1869.

John Blickenstaff had a very limited education, but learned to be a careful farmer. On September 15, 1857, he was married to Catherine Kuns, born in Carroll County, Ind., May 26, 1842, a daughter of Daniel and Maria (Lesley) Kuns, born in Ohio. They went to Indiana when they were children, and married in that state, afterwards coming to Macon County, Ill., locating on a farm there in 1855. He died in 1863, aged forty-one years. Subsequently Mrs. Kuns married (second) Martin Swank, and moved to Kansas, but returned in the fall of 1880, to Cerro Gordo, where Mrs. Swank died in June, 1900, aged seventy-eight years.

Following their marriage, Mr. and Mrs. Blickenstaff went on a farm in Macon County, three miles south of Cerro Gordo, he owning three pieces of land in that neighborhood, of 160 acres in the home farm, and another eighty-acre farm and a third, of 120 acres. Until 1879 they continued to live here, and then moved to Cerro Gordo where Mr. Blickenstaff bought ten acres of land at the city limits, on which he erected a fine residence, and put up other buildings. He gave to his two daughters each a farm. His death occurred November 11, 1914, but he had been a sufferer from failing eyesight from 1900. Since his demise his widow has resided in the home place. Their two children were Ida, who is Mrs. A. J. Chichester of Cerro Gordo: and Emma, who is Mrs. Isaiah Wheeler, also of Cerro Gordo. Mr. Blickenstaff belonged to the Church of the Brethern, as does his widow, in which he was a deacon many years - from 1878 until death. He was a Republican & he was just ~~as~~ faithful in his support of that party as he was in all other relations of life.

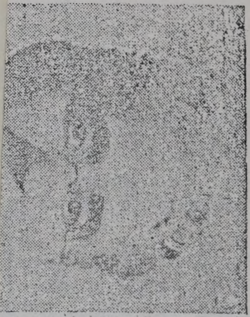
1942 Passing of Mrs. Emma Eikenberry

Emma Blickenstaff, youngest daughter of John and Catherine Kuns Blickenstaff, was born on a farm near Cerro Gordo, Illinois, Nov. 6, 1875. She died in the Iowa Methodist hospital, April 26, 1942, age 67 years, 5 months, 20 days.



When she was four years old the family moved into Cerro Gordo where she attended school and was baptized into the Church of the Brethren at the age of eleven years by Elder John Metzger.

On January 1, 1891, she was married to Isaiah Wheeler. The young couple left the farm in 1895 and moved into Cerro Gordo where Mr. Wheeler was engaged in business. No children were born to this union, but four homeless children were reared in this home: two nieces, Lillie and Etta Wheeler, and a six-year-old boy, Guy Crook. In the spring of 1916 a baby girl, Naomi Ruth, was adopted into the family. Thus we can realize the great love the Wheelers had for children, for these four children found real parents in them.

On Oct. 17, 1916, while on a business trip to the West, Mr. Wheeler died very suddenly. The body was brought back to his home where funeral services were held and interment made in the Cerro Gordo cemetery.

It was June 4, 1922, Emma Wheeler and Daniel Simmons were married in Cerro Gordo, making their home there until July 25, 1930, when Mr. Simmons passed on. In 1931 Mrs. Simmons and daughter, Naomi Ruth, disposed of their belongings in Cerro Gordo, and left for Long Beach, California, to make their home.

After living in Long Beach for nearly ten years Emma Simmons and M. W. Eikenberry of Dallas Center, Iowa, were married in Long Beach, Jan. 20, 1940. They came to Dallas Center to establish their home together, where they lived happily until the time of her death.

Mrs. Eikenberry had been in failing health for some time, but was believed to be improving after undergoing two successful operations. Prior to these she called for the anointing service. In this New Testament teaching she had great faith and exercised confidence in God. People were surprised and greatly saddened by her sudden death as a result of a slight stroke.

The funeral service was held April 29 in the Dallas Center Church of the Brethren, with the undersigned, her pastor, preaching the sermon, assisted by Elder J. D. Brower of Maxwell, Iowa. The body was then taken to Cerro Gordo, Illinois, her old home community, and laid to rest in the Cerro Gordo cemetery. The service in Illinois was held from the Church of the Brethren, and was conducted by Brethren I. D. Heckman and Geo. W. Miller.

She is survived by her devoted husband, one sister, an adopted daughter, three foster children and a host of friends in many states.

DAVID J. BLICKENSTAFF, son of Joseph and Catharine E. Replogle Blickenstaff, was born near Oakley, Illinois, August 25, 1868. On May 22, 1887, he was baptized by Amos J. Nickey. Elizabeth Frances Henricks of Cerro Gordo, Illinois, became his wife on March 24, 1892. She lived until February 3, 1929. One foster daughter was reared in this home. He married Susan Charlotte Hunter of Pleasant Mound, Illinois, on August 27, 1930. He attended Mount Morris College in 1890-1891, and again for six months of Bible work, 1899-1900; in addition he attended brief Bible terms at Mount Morris College, Manchester College and Bethany Biblical Seminary. Brother Blickenstaff was elected to the ministry in the Oakley church, November 1, 1895, and ordained to the eldership in the Hudson church, Hudson, Illinois, December 6, 1901. In the Oakley church he served in the free ministry for many years while farming. From 1901 to 1903 he was pastor at Hudson, Illinois. As elder-in-charge he served these churches: Hudson, Walnut Grove, Astoria, Cerro Gordo, Hurricane Creek, and Oakley—the latter for thirty-six years. He has served in various district offices: member, district mission board, nineteen years; member, district trustee board, three years; moderator, three times; reader, six times; secretary, twice. Four times he represented the district on Standing Committee. Since 1940 he has been a member of the district historical committee. He has attended fifty-five consecutive district meetings.

D.J. Blickenstaff's father, Joseph, came to Oakley Township April 6, 1856. He was 18 years old and enjoyed a continuous residence here for 70 years.

Three generations have lived in his home two miles northwest of Oakley since then. His granddaughter and her husband now live in the house, which is over 100 years old.

When Blickenstaff came to the area in the early 1850's, there were no buildings, neither residences nor business, in what is now Oakley.

However, a post office was located 2½ miles northwest of the town on a farm then owned by John Rickets. The property later belonged to C.C. Jackson and is now owned by David Hardcastle.

It was known as Oakley Post Office because many Oak trees surrounded the buildings on the farm.

It was situated on a state road, running transversely across the county regardless of section lines and connecting Decatur and Monticello as county seats of their respective counties.

Mail was carried by stagecoach in the 1850's.

David P. Landis, who came from Pennsylvania, occupied the first house built in the area.

George Everline built the first store with lumber that Blickenstaff hauled from Decatur.

The first school house in the township was a simple frame structure along the road on the north side of section 36 two miles northwest of Oakley and ¼-mile west of Badger Creek.

The creek supposedly got its name from the numerous dens of badgers, 1¼-mile south of Oakley.

The creek's source is at this location.

The school house was the first and only public building in the township at the time. It provided a place where public meetings were held, and the first township elections were held there.

A very tall Buchanan pole was raised just across the road from the school. The stars and stripes were displayed at the top of the pole along with the name of the Presidential candidate and a large head of a male deer with long antlers.

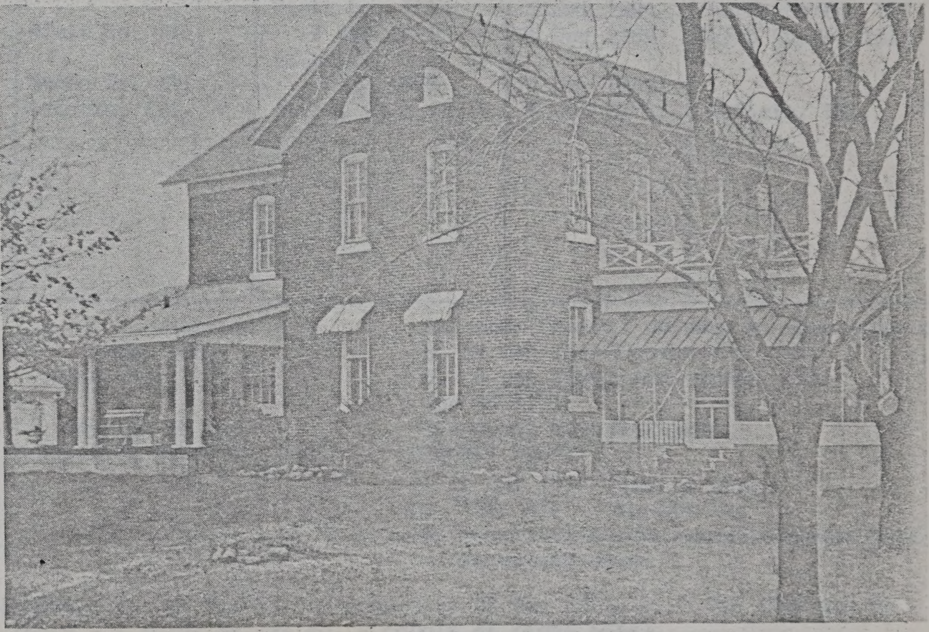
The exact spot where this pole stood is still visible as an indentation shaped as a cross in the sod. It is under a large maple tree in Orville and Eva Bell's front yard.

The Bells are the third generation to live in the old brick home, built in 1869.

No structual changes have been made in the original building.

The walls are 14-inch brick. Two porches and a utility room have been added, but match perfectly the plain style of the old building.

Papers exist proving the house cost only $2,175.38 for material and labor in 1869, quite a difference from what it would cost to build now.



HOUSE IN FAMILY OVER 100 YEARS. The house owned by Orville and Eva Bell has been in her family for over 100 years. A granddaughter of Joseph Blickenstaff who built the house in 1869, Mrs. Bell is the third generation of the Blickenstaff family to live in the home. Except for the addition of two porches and a utility room, the house remains structurally the same as it was in 1869. News photo by Martha Fore.

Verna Mabel Blickenstaff, the daughter of Levi and Barbara Wagoner Blickenstaff, was born January 31, 1891. After the death of her mother three years later, she lived in the home of an uncle and an aunt. Before Verna was ten, her father married Mattie Davis. Verna was baptized by J. W. Lear, January 4, 1903. Following attendance at Mount Morris College she spent three years at Bethany Biblical Seminary and took nurses' training at the Illinois Training School for Nurses, graduating as R.N. in 1917. She then spent two years in nursing. Early in 1920 she sailed for India. For a number of years she was a member of the staff of the Dahanu mission hospital, after which she was the school nurse at the Woodstock school for two years. Then she was located at Bulsar, where she has charge of the nursing in the dispensary and hospital rooms. Very few know of the extra service she renders in an unassuming manner.

You may have all this but anyway in case you don't have it — to the United States, 1869, and arrived at Springfield, Ill., on September 29, and from there went to New Berlin, Ill., to join his two sisters. He began working on farms, so continuing for four years, and then returned to Springfield, and commenced learning the wagon-making trade, which he later followed at Springfield and Monticello, and eventually he and H. D. Herrington established a wagon shop at Monticello, which they conducted from 1874 to June 2, 1875. Then Mr. Bickel came to De Land and established a wagon shop which he conducted in conjunction with handling agricultural implements, from 1875 until 1913, when the implement part of the business become of such volume he gave up his wagon shop to devote himself exclusively to dealing in implements, and now handles all the leading makes including those of the McCormick, John Deere and the International Harvester companies.

On December 12, 1878, Mr. Bickel was married to Mary Lorinda McBride, born at West Alexandria, Ohio, a daughter of Jacob and Sarah Caroline (Kelley) McBride, natives of Maryland and Eaton, Ohio, respectively. Mr. and Mrs. Bickel became the parents of the following children: Alta, who is deceased; Roland, who is at home; Flossie, who is deceased; John, who died in infancy; Claude, who lives at Clinton, Ill.; Daisy, who is Mrs. John Q. Adams, of Rutland, Ill.; Harry, who is at home; Joseph, who died in infancy; Herbert, who lives at Centerville, Iowa; and Lola and Opal who are at home.

In religious faith Mr. Bickel is a Methodist. He served for eight years as a school director, and for six years was on the De Land board of trustees, and was president of the board two different times. In addition he rendered efficient service as village treasurer, and was elected to these different offices on the Republican ticket, and was his party's township committeeman one term. Fraternally he belongs to the Odd Fellows and Modern Woodmen of America, both of De Land. Both as a public official and private citizen, Mr. Bickel stands very high, and people have full confidence in him and his integrity and ability.

64.4.2.5.3 BLICKENSTAFF, David D., proprietor of a reliable livery stable and feed barn at Cerro Gordo, is a man who understands his business thoroughly and takes a pride in giving his patrons good service and fair terms. He was born in Oakley Township, Macon County, Ill., September 15, 1872, a son of Leonard A. and Susanna (Frantz) Blickenstaff, born in Clinton County, Ind. They were early settlers of Macon County, Ill., where the father engaged in farming. His death occurred in June, 1878. The mother survives and makes her home with a son Levi, in Macon County.

David D. Blickenstaff attended the schools in his district until he was fifteen years old, at which time he began working for farmers by the month. As soon as he was able he began farming for himself, and so continued for fifteen years, but in 1908 moved to Cerro Gordo, and embarked in a livery business which he has since conducted very successfully. He has 10 head of horses, and as many vehicles, and his men are reliable and steady.

In December, 1894, Mr. Blickenstaff was married (first) to Sarah Jackson who died in December of the following year, leaving no issue. In May, 1901, Mr. Blickenstaff was married (second) to Emma Mohler, born in Piatt County, Ill., a daughter of Daniel Mohler, a native of Pennsylvania. Mr. and Mrs. Blickenstaff have had the following children: Myra, Myrtle, Edwin, Irwin, Edna, Paul and Leonard. He belongs to the Church of the Brethren, and is active in its good work. In politics he is a Republican. A hardworking man, he has had but little time to form outside connections, and is not a member of any fraternities or clubs, but takes his pleasure in his home and family.

OSCAR CABLES TO OBSERVE 50th ANNIVERSARY JULY 19

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Cable of Monticello will celebrate their 50th anniversary at a reception from 6-9 Saturday, July 19th in the First Christian Church, North State Street Road, Monticello, Illinois.

The 25th anniversary of their oldest son Glenn and wife of Greenville, South Carolina will be remembered at the same time. Glenn Cable and Jincie Patton of Canton, North Carolina were married August 1, 1955 in Canton. They have two daughters: Janet Hendley of Spartanburg, South Carolina and Susan Cable of Greenville, South Carolina.

Friends and relatives of both couples are invited. They feel that the fellowship of friends and relatives that evening will mean more than gifts.

We anticipate some musical tributes to the two couples unless some unforeseen events prevent.

Oscar Cable and the former Myra K. Blickenstaff were married July 18, 1930 at Cerro Gordo, Illinois.

They are the parents of Glenn Cable, Greenville, South Carolina; Wayne Cable, Ivan Cable and Carol Ann McCartney, all of Monticello. A daughter and a son are deceased.

They have eight grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Teenager killed near Oakley when motorcycles collide

A motorcyle accident Friday afternoon killed one teenager and sent another to the hospital for emergency treatment.

Dennis Cable, 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cable, 210 Carmi Court, was pronounced dead at the scene on a country road east of Oakley.

Dennis Shafer, also 15, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Shafer, 412 Van Dongen Ave., was taken by Cerro Gordo Community Ambulance Service to St. Mary's Hospital where he was treated and released.

The two-vehicle accident occurred at 2:30 p.m. on Angle Crossing Road about 130 feet west of Greenway Road intersection.

Both youths were riding motorcycles and were eastbound on Angle Crossing Road. Cable was on a three-wheel Honda ATV, and Shafer was on a Harley Davidson motorcycle.

According to Macon County Sheriff's deputies, Shafer looked behind himself at the same time Cable pulled his machine ahead of and in front of Shafer's.

The two cycles collided, apparently knocking Cable off his vehicle.

Obituaries published in The Gospel Messenger, July 21, 1900, page 463:

BLICKENSTAFF – An accident occurred in the vicinity of Flora, Ind., on the evening of July 4, 1900, when Bro. Noah Blickenstaff and three children met their death. The wife and mother was severely injured. Bro. Noah in the evening of that day took his family in the carriage, and drove to the home of his father, Eld. Solomon Blickenstaff, in the town of Flora, about two miles away, where with his brother and sister and their families they spent the evening. They started to return early to their home, but, while crossing the railroad in the town of Bringhurst, they were struck by an extra engine, which was running backwards and gave no signal. Bro. Blickenstaff and two sons were instantly killed, and a little daughter fatally injured, so that she died thirty-three hours later. His wife, Sister Ida, was severely injured. The doctors and undertakers were called and they, with the assistance of kind friends, cared for the wounded, and prepared the mangled bodies for immediate burial next day, when three funeral cars lfet the once peaceful and pleasant home, en route to their former home in the Middle Fork congregation, seventeen miles away, where the bodies were laid to rest and a funeral service conducted by Eld. A. G. Crosswhite and the writer, from Matt. 24: 42. Two days later the remains of the little daughter were laid beside the father and brothers. (1) Bro. Noah Blickenstaff was born Feb. 22, 1870; died July 4, 1900, aged 30 years, 3 months and 12 days. He united with the Brethren church when young. Jan. 1, 1893, he was married to sister Ida Neher, to which union two sons and one daughter were born. (2)Ora Blickenstaff, son of Bro. Noah and Sister Ida Blickenstaff, was born Oct. 1, 1894; died July 4, 1900, aged 5 years, 9 months and 3 days. (3) Charles Galen Blickenstaff, son of Bro. Noah and Sister Ida Blickenstaff, was born Sept. 17, 1899; died July 4, 1900, aged 9 months and 17 days. (4) Clara Fern Blickenstaff, daughter of Bro. Noah and Sister Ida Blickenstaff, was born Nov. 18, 1897; died July 6, 1900, aged 2 years, 7 months and 18 days.

Golden Wedding Anniversary of the Showalters

Dec. 3, 1939, a golden wedding anniversary was celebrated e Chippewa Church of the Brethren north of Wooster, Ohio. honored couple was Elder and Mrs. Simon A. Showalter, since 1910 have lived in the bounds of this congregation. ough the co-operation of the pastor, Elder S. P. Early, the worship service was in charge of the members of the walter family. Roland L. Showalter, pastor of the Mansfield rch of the Brethren, and grandson of the couple, delivered the ning sermon, The Happy Life. Mr. and Mrs. D. Warren Sho- er, nephew and niece of the couple, and the mixed quartet e church, provided worship and anniversary music. A sur- dinner was served to about 100 members of the family and nds in the church dining room following the morning serv- At the dinner the gift of the family, and the gift of the rch, a large reclining lounge chair, was presented to the le. Open house was observed in the family home during afternoon. Many friends called to extend their congratula- and wishes.

mon A. Showalter and Nora A. Fike were married Dec. 5, in the parsonage of the Ashland Dickey church by Elder Parker, the pastor. They had been raised in the bounds e Mohican church, and returned to that community to live 1910 when they moved to their present home. In 1890 the le united with the church, and in 1896 they were elected to office of deacon. In 1913 Bro. Showalter was called to the stry, and a short time later elected to the eldership. For t forty-five of their fifty years of church service Bro. Sho- er has taught a Sunday-school class. Since their marriage have been Gospel Messenger subscribers. For many years Showalter served the Chippewa church in the free ministry, ys making his living farming. The past four years, until the ng of Bro. S. P. Early in Sept., 1939, he had been sharing preaching responsibility with Elder Claude H. Murray. He erved many years as the elder of the congregation, and for ty-six consecutive years, until the meeting this fall, he has esented his people in district meeting. Today, at seventy- Bro. Andes Golden Anniversary

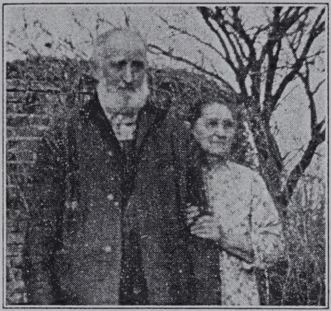
A host of relatives and friends very pleasantly surprised Brother and Sister Adam Andes with letters and cards commemorating their fiftieth year of wedlock. Brother and Sister Andes were married in Virginia and lived there for many years. Due to failing health and an adventurous spirit, they moved to Michigan. About a year later they were to be found in Kansas, where they made many friends and renewed acquaintance with relatives. From there they moved to Missouri where they have spent many happy years in and near Mound City.



On Monday, Dec. 25, 1939, the bride and groom of fifty years ago had the honor of having seated at their Christmas dinner table four of their five living children (two of whom live near their home) and five of their ten grandchildren. Besides the many cards received, they were presented with a studio couch and many other useful gifts. We wish for them many more happy married years, and may the future give them as good health as they have seen in the past.

Among the guests were Miss Lucy Lea Andes of Washington, D. C., Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Andes and son, Bruce, of Kansas City, Mo., Frederick and Jesse Heddings of Catlett, Va., Orpha Marti of Elgin, Ill., Miss Julia Browning of Mound City, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. John Marti and daughter, Eloise, and John D. Andes of Mound City, Mo. Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Marti of Mound City, along with their daughter Anna of Chicago, Ill., were afternoon callers.

Mrs. Hannah Blickenstaff

Hannah Brookins, daughter of Henry and Catharine Newcomer Brookins, was born in Greenville, Ohio, Dec. 14, 1858, and departed this life at her home in Long Beach, Calif., Dec. 31, 1939. When she was but a child the Brookins family moved to North Manchester, Ind., where the subject of this sketch grew to womanhood. Here she was united in marriage to David Blickenstaff, who not only sought and found a good wife, but was desirous of a mother for his five motherless children. They came to Cerro Gordo, Ill., where she became their mother in the truest sense. The youngest of this family was Lynn A., a babe of less than two years of age, to whom she was a very dear mother. Three daughters were born to David and Hannah Blickenstaff. They are: Mrs. Ray Bunch, Mrs. Leon England and Mrs. Ruth Lichtenwalter.

Two sons and five daughters were reared in this home, and they all reside in southern California except Lynn A., who is serving his church faithfully and well as a missionary in Bombay, India.

Mrs. Blickenstaff is survived by fourteen grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, three sisters, one brother of North Manchester, Ind., a large number of more distant relatives and a host of friends.

When a young woman she gave her heart to the Lord and became a member of the Church of the Brethren, to which she was faithful and devoted. She served as a deaconess and did honor to the office. For years she taught in the Sunday school and was always ready to serve whenever called upon. The Blickenstaff home was noted for its kind hospitality, and many people were entertained there.

The family resided near Cerro Gordo for twenty years. In 1910 they moved to La Verne, Calif., where they lived until 1922, when they moved to Long Beach, which had since been her home.

Aunt Hannah, as we all loved to call her, was bedfast with her last illness for more than two years, in the home of her youngest daughter, Mrs. Ruth Lichtenwalter, where she had every care and comfort that it was humanly possible to give. She bore her affliction with such wonderful patience and Christian fortitude that she became a real benediction to all who visited her. She was such a genuine, genial personality, with a character above reproach, that she built a memorial in the memories of all who knew her.

Funeral services were conducted by Pastor Luckett from the Mottell funeral home in Long Beach. The body was laid to rest in the beautiful Evergreen cemetery near La Verne, Calif., beside that of her husband who had preceded her in death, April 25, 1934. The many beautiful floral offerings and large audience gave evidence of the high esteem in which the family is held.

Long Beach, Calif. Mrs. Emma Simmons.

MEDITATIONS

Sing a new song, oh my soul
Let me listen to the cries of joy, the cries of pain
Open my ears. Let me hear
The music of the spheres
The songs of the young yearning for a bright new world
The songs of sorrow from those whom we have killed, whose homes and land we have destroyed
Let me hear and join in singing the songs of brotherhood that can and will unite all people throughout this world
Let me join hands across the gap with sons and daughters who will carry on what we have left.
Let me be open to change--

* * * * * * * *

1. Make a joyful noise inside yourself because you know you are alive and part of all the life that is around you.
2. And with that joyful sound continuing inside you as a vibrant awareness of the sheer joy of being, remember that you are a member of the human race.
3. It has no known beginning and it has no known end but you are a supremely important part of this perhaps eternal life.
4. It is given to you to learn from the past to love beauty, truth and love itself, and to live them now in the immediacy of each and every passing moment of your life so that they will be carried forward into your own future and the future of your race. Live to understand that your life is nothing and is yet everything as part of the seamless web of existence that lies between eternity and eternity.

-Stephen Blickenstaff

I SHALL REMEMBER YOU Stephen Blickenstaff

I shall remember you when you have gone
Because you rang the bells of life
With heavy clangs, delicate tinkles and all that lies between.
Some of the bells you tolled were made of lead
But most of burnished bronze
And make their noise across the earth and heavens.
What a delightful racket!

CLOSING WORDS: The Reverend Sara Moores Campbell

POSTLUDE: Ennis Fruhauf

* * * * * * * * *

What is life? It opens with the loud declamation of birth, then settles down to the murmurous background strands, racing along at great speed against which the major themes and events of life are played out in harmony, in dissonance, in joy, in sorrow, in shouts, in whispers, ending finally in a quiet solo question of uncertainty. What does it all mean?

-Stephen Blickenstaff

#742 Lynn A. Blickenstaff was born near Cerro Gordo, Illinois, February 14, 1889, the son of David and Hannah Heckman Blickenstaff. He was baptized in 1900 at Cerro Gordo. Lynn attended Mount Morris College and La Verne College. He was married to Mary Brubaker of Indiana on May 25, 1912; they have three sons. For eleven years he was cashier of the First National Bank at La Verne, California. In India he had twenty-five years' experience in the field of mission administration and finance; eleven of those years he was manager of the Inter-Mission Business Office, an organization functioning for nearly every denomination carrying on mission work in India. Because of his health he was forced to give up his work in India and returned to America in June 1948.

If you have any new material on the Metzgers or the Blickenstaffs that we should see, please send to me and I will see that other members of the family who are interested will receive it. Today I am making copies of the material Maxine sent to me before Marvin Blickenstaff came to give a concert at the La Verne Church of the Brethren for its Centennary Celebration. I made copies for each family represented, as well as copies of "How to Be a Relative". We had great fun doing it while we were having lunch.

Please excuse me for not writing separate letters to each of you. I thought joint copies would do.

With very best wishes to both of you,
Sincerely,

Elder D. P. Shively and Wife

Home; a member of the district Mission Board; reading clerk of the district meeting four times and five times its moderator. Once he was elected to the Standing Committee.

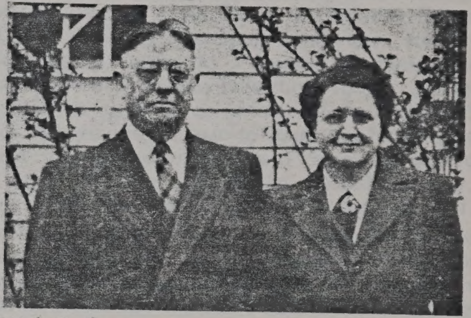
Bro. Shively was a man of unusual ability and personal charm. He was an eloquent advocate of the Word. His ministry in times of sickness and death extended beyond the membership of his church. He helped much in the management of the Conference at North Manchester, 1900. Soon after the meeting he died of a heart attack.

THOMAS A. SHIVELY

Brother Shively was born in Miami County on November 22, 1883, to Daniel P. and Harriet Little Shively. Brother Al Wright of North Manchester baptized him in 1904. He was called to the ministry in 1922 and to the eldership in 1924. In 1906, he married Myrtle A. Fisher. They have three sons.

Thomas A. Shively and Wife

Brother Shively attended several colleges but holds his degree from Manchester. For many years he served as a teacher, principal, and county superintendent in the public schools of Indiana. He has combined teaching with ministerial work for many years. He began serving in the free ministry in his home church, Pipe Creek, in 1922 and has been presiding elder since 1928. Five times he has served on Standing Committee; he has been moderator, reading and writing clerk of his district and for fourteeen years on the Ministerial Mission Board. Another notable service he has rendered has been that of trustee of Manchester College since 1928. He has held many evangelistic meetings and has served in many other ways. Full of enthusiasm, Brother Shively has rendered a very fine service to the church and continues to do so.



64.4.2.9-2 Levi S. Shively and Wife

Bk# 747

LEVI S. SHIVELY

Shively, Levi S., was born at Piatt, Ill., Oct. 10, 1884. He was the son of John and Leah (Blickenstaff) Shively. He was married to Emma G. Whistler in 1906, to whom were born four sons: Willard, Forest, Ralph and John.

Bro. Shively attended Mt. Morris College, Ill., the University of Michigan, and the University of Chicago. He was a teacher in Mt. Morris College in Ill. 1908-1915 and 1917- 1928; also in Ball State Teachers' College since 1928. After the death of his wife he married Edna Wolf, of Franklin Grove, Ill. She has been very active in the work of the church. For a number of years she has served as Children's Director of the Central Region.

In 1905 he was elected to the ministry, and in 1917 was ordained to the eldership. He has served his home congregation as presiding elder since 1946. For some years he served as Trustee of Manchester College. His home address is 2025 W. Jackson St., Muncie, Ind.

DAVID SHOEMAKER

Born in Columbiana County, Ohio, in 1789, a soldier in the war of 1812, Bro. Shoemaker was converted and was called to preach in the Sandy Church, Stark County, Ohio. He was called to the eldership there and later moved to Huntington County where he was the first minister and elder of the Clear Creek church. He also worked in Whitley County where he was a leader in organizing the Sugar Creek church. He did not live to a great age, passing away in 1855 at sixty-six. He was a highly respected church leader.

LAWRENCE (L. W.) SHULTZ

Lawrence (known as L. W.) Shultz was born to Isaac L. and Elizabeth (Ulrich) Shultz, at the old John Ulrich homestead eight miles south of Huntington, Ind., on the Lancaster road October 24, 1890.

In 1903 he completed the grade school at the Ream's School and in 1907 high school at Lancaster. He entered Manchester College April 1, 1907 and has been connected with it to the present as student, teacher, field worker, and collector. In the fall of 1907, six weeks before he was seventeen, he began teaching school at Zook's School. Two years there and one year at Lancaster completed his grade school teaching. In 1910 he began teaching in the high school at Lancaster Center, Huntington Co., taught one year and then taught in the Academy at Manchester College while completing his college work. He graduated in 1914. Then for two years he was principal at Lancaster High School. He became principal of the Academy at Manchester College and served till 1923. 1923 and 1924 were spent in Northwestern University securing his Master's Degree. 1925-1943 were spent in teaching and in being librarian at Manchester College. He taught in the field of Christian Education. Since 1943 he has served as field man, manager of Camp Mack, and director of Brethren Tours.

On June 1, 1915 he was married to Cora Leona Winger of Sweetser, Grant County, Ind., daughter of John Martin and Mary C. Smith Winger. To them were born four children, Ruthanne (Anglin) Feb. 15, 1919, Betty Marie, July 31, 1924, Carl Jean and Carol Dean, May 29, 1929.

On May 29, 1910 the Salamonie Church called L. W. (and Noah M. Shideler) to the ministry. In 1919 the church ordained him to the eldership.

Since 1916 to the present he has been connected with the district work of Middle Indiana, as District Sunday School Secretary and field man 1916-1946, member of the Board of Christian Education, writing clerk, and 1923 (Calgary) Standing Committee. He served as secretary of the Calgary Conference Program Committee; as member of the General Board of Christian Education, 1923-41; as member of the Peace Commission, 1928-40; as member of the Brethren Service Committee since its beginning in 1940 to 1946. As foreman and supervisor he sponsored two shiploads of heifers to Poland in 1945-1946-1947 and he helped start the relief mission in Poland in 1947. Two tours of Brethren people were directed by him in 1949 and 1951.

He feels that his outstanding contribution has been in the field of Young People's work. He served as a member of the Youth Commission for many years; suggested the name BYPD which was adopted; was advisor of the Middle Indiana Youth Cabinet 1923-1941, and since 1921 he has served as a leader in the camping movement of the church. In 1924 he helped locate and start Camp Mack and has managed it to this date. It has been one of his chief interests. He has felt that college and church and camp have taken his full time during these busy years. He has been aided greatly by his good wife and children in these endeavors.

He served for many years as chairman of the Youth Council of Indiana and as a denominational representative on the Indiana Council of Christian Education and represents that Council on the Indiana Council of Churches.

He is also chairman of the Historical Commission of the Church of the Brethren which at the Manchester Conference was reorganized as a regular commission of the church. The publication of this book has been one of his main concerns.

Note for #4 child of Joseph Blickenstaff & Mary Heckman

#412 Anna Blickenstaff b. 14 April 1865 married Ira C. Cripe b. 28 Sept 1858 New Paris, Ind. d. 1930. (See following clipping). He was 1st md. to Anna Frantz b. 12 Aug 1865 d. 6 April 1889 age 23-7-24. Tombstones at East Frantz Cerro Gordo. Probably Anna Blickenstaff is buried in California or possible too that her death date was never inscribed in cemetery in Cerro Gordo - just her birth year.

130.21.7.9.4 Ira C. Cripe formerly of Cerro Gordo but for the past 20 years living at L.A. California took his own life. Found in his auto with bullet wound in his right temple and revolver on seat beside him. Known to be despondent for several years and once before attempted to end his own life by inhaling gas. The body was brought to Cerro Gordo for burial. He was born at New Paris, Ind. Sept. 28, 1858 son of Mr. & Mrs. George W. Cripe. He came to Piatt Co. Ill. in 1883. Retired from the farm in 1894 and moved to Cerro Gordo. In October of 1910 he moved to California. He married Anna Frantz of Cerro Gordo. She died April 6, 1889. In October 1890 he married Anna Blickenstaff of Cerro Gordo. The survivors are his brother, O.F. Cripe of C.G.; and sisters, Mrs. Ellen E. Leedy, C.G.; Mrs. Alice Shively of C.G.; Mrs George Miller of LaPlace, Ill. and Mrs O.G. Brubaker of N. Manchester, Ind.

(no mention of a surviving wife)

Ira was the son of George W. Cripe & Barbara Shively

son of Leonard Wolf, Jr. & Elizabeth Wagoner

All four of the above are buried in the Mt. Hope Cemetery, 3600 Parallel Parkway, Kansas City, Kns. 66104.

John and Susanna Wolf moved their family to California in 1885, then to Warrensburg, Missouri, in 1896, where they are located in the 1900 U.S. Census. John is a retired farmer, living in his mortgage free home at 700 North Holden Street. In 1902 he removed to Kansas City, Ks, Wyandotte Co. at 2116 N. Fremont Street. Here they remained the rest of their lives. Susan died at the home of their daughter Eva Long.

John was previously married to Barbara Ulery (64.1.8.2) and had two children. Barbara died 9 Jan. 1864, the daughter of Aaron & Esther (Musselman) Ulery. Both Susanna and Barbara were 1st cousins, once removed.

E. VI. e. JACOB BLICKENSTAFF. He was born in Montgomery County, Ohio, December 5,1816, and lived there until 1834. After his father died, his mother moved her family into Tippecanoe County, Indiana, on April 10,1836. He married Susan Ulrich, who was born December 21,1812, and died September 15, 1876. (Another record spells her name "Ulrey" and gives her birth date as December 12,1817, and the date of her death as September 15,1876). This later record states that they were married April 10,1830. This later record also states that he married Esther Wagoner, December 2,1876, and that she died March 11,1883, aged 65 years. According to incidents related by his granddaughters, he was a very stern man and very particular. It was said that during the last illness of his daughter-inlaw, Mrs. Isaac Blickenstaff, he insisted that she could not eat on account of the way her daughters prepared her food, and that it was not fit to eat. So he killed, dressed and cooked a chicken, saying that now she would eat. She did eat a little of it in order to please him, but she soon died. By 1900 he was totally blind, and it is likely he was blind several years before, but he lived at that time with his son Isaac Blickenstaff, in Pyrmont, Indiana, and had the satisfaction of holding two of his great grandchildren on his lap. His last years were spent at the Brethern Old Folks Home at Mexico, Indiana, where he died September 22,1904, and was buried there. His children were:

E. VI. e. 1. Joseph, b.4-10-1837. Married Mary Heckman, and moved to Butler County, Kansas.

2. Susanna, b.7-30-1838. Married John Wolf, October 30,1864, moved to California, in 1885, and to Warrensburg, Kansas, in 1896, and to Kansas City, 1902, where she died January 11,1932, aged 93 years, at the home of her only child, Eva Long.

He united with the Church of the Brethern at the age of seventeen. At 6:00 P.M., May 24,1868, he was married to Mary Wagoner, daughter of Joal and Susan Wagoner, by Elder John Shively. She was born February 22,1847, and died July 18,1892. His early married life was spent in Ross Township, on a farm about one and one-fourth miles south of Rossville. Later he moved to Tippecanoe County, Indiana, not very far from the Fairview Church of the Brethern. It was at this place that his wife died and shortly after that time he spent some time in North Dakota. He returned to Pyrmont, Carroll County, Indiana, where he purchased a small tract of land, about one and one-half acres, and lived there until his death, his daughter Ellen, keeping house for him. He was totally blind for the last eight or ten years of his life, and remarked when his great-grandsons were born that he never thought he would live to see the Fourth generation. He had the reputation of being a very patient man, never complaining about his suffering. His children were: 66.7.2.1

#435 E. VI. e. 6. a. EMMA BLICKENSTAFF. She was born in Ross Township, Clinton County, Indiana, June 16,1869. She married Elias Wagoner (no blood relation of Mary Wagoner, wife of No.E.VI.e.6), April ,1894. They first established their home on a farm west of Pyrmont, directly across from a deep ravine adjoining the ravine adjoining the place owned by her father, and where he resided at the time of his death. This farm was at that time owned by Milton Bosworth, husband of Elias Wagoner's oldest sister, Elizabeth. The farm was later owned by Herman Leibert, husband of another sister of Elias'. It was in the old frame house near the ravine that Floyd, their oldest child was born, March 30,1895. A year or so later they moved to a farm near Oakley, Illinois, and then later moved into the edge of the little village, in a place known as the "Nicky" house. It was at this place that Mary, their second child was born. About the first of March 1900 they returned to Indiana and purchased a twenty acre farm from Elias' next oldest brother, Henry. This farm was about 3-1/2 miles northwest of Pyrmont, Indiana, on the east side of the county line between Carroll and Tippecanoe counties. The house was built partially from logs, "weatherboarded" up and down with rough undressed lumber, and the cracks were "stripped". Sometime after the farm was sold, the house was demolished, and the land which they owned is now a part of a large farm. At this place their second child, Mary, died August 28,1900, as a result of ivy poisoning and was buried in the Pyrmont Cemetery. Verna and Esther were born at this place. This farm was sold, and they bought a forty acre farm about two and a quarter miles southeast of Rossville, Clinton County,Indiana. Here Florence, Frances and Anna were born. Anna died at this place as a result of scarlet fever and was buried in the Pleasant View Cemetery owned by the Church of the Brethern, about 5 miles southwest of Rossville.

Life did not deal kindly with Emma. It seems that Elias, her husband, did not have the courage and strength of character required to cope with life, and developed into a brutal drunkard. Matters became so serious that a separation was the only humane course to pursue. He dismissed his responsibilities as husband and father by leaving home in May 1914. Anna was then only four months old. Emma later brought suit for divorce which was granted to her in the fall of 1914. By the terms of the Bill of Divorce she was given the sole ownership of the farm, which was heavily mortgaged, and Elias received a small amount of cash. In the years which followed Elias spent a life of comparative ease with his unmarried sister, Kate, in the village of Pyrmont, in the property she inherited from her parents.

Since both were members of the Church of the Brethern, and the church was strongly opposed to divorce, both Emma and Elias were expelled from the church. After additional vows were taken, Emma was later restored to full membership, and she remained a staunch and devoted member until the time of her death.

The years were full of hardships until the children became self-supporting. Floyd purchased a cream buying station in Rossville which he and his mother operated. Later she sold the farm, and purchased a home in Rossville. Verna and Esther worked for other families for a number of years and Verna obtained work in Levi Straus Levins adjoining the place owned by her father, and where he resided at the time of his death. This farm was at that time owned by Milton Bosworth, husband of Elias Wagner's oldest sisters, Elizabeth. The farm was later owned by Herman Leibert, husband of another sister of Elias'. It was in the old frame house near the present that Floyd, their oldest child was born, March 30,1890. A year or so later they moved to a farm near Oakley, Illinois and then later moved into the edge of the little village, in a place known as the "Ringy" house. It was at this place that Mary, their second child was born, about the first of March 1893. They returned to Indiana and purchased a twenty acre farm from Elias' next oldest brother, Henry. This farm was about 3 miles northwest of Plymouth, Indiana, on the east side of [illegible] counties. [illegible] between [illegible] was demolished, and the land which they [illegible] now a part of [illegible] August 22, 1899, [illegible] a result of ivy poisoning and was buried in the Plymouth Cemetery. Verna and Esther were born at this place. This farm was sold, and they bought a forty acre farm about two and a quarter miles southeast of Rossville, Clinton County, Indiana. [illegible] Florence and Anna were born. Anna died at the place as a result of [illegible] and was buried in the [illegible] south-east of Rossville.

Life did not deal kindly with Emma. [illegible] husband, [illegible] courage and strength [illegible] Elias [illegible] course to [illegible]. He abandoned his responsibilities as husband and father by leaving home in May 1914. Anna was then only four months old. Emma later brought suit for divorce which was granted to her in the fall of 1914. By the terms of the bill of divorce she was given the sole ownership of the farm, which was heavily mortgaged, and Elias received a small amount of cash. In the years which followed Elias spent a life of comparative ease with his unmarried sister, Kate, in the old home in Plymouth, in the property she inherited from her parents.

Since both were members of the Church of the Brethren, and the church was strongly opposed to divorce, both Emma and Elias were expelled from the church. After additional vows were taken, Emma was later restored to full membership, and she remained a staunch and devoted member until the time of her death.

The years were full of hardships until the children became self-supporting. Floyd purchased a grain buying station in Rossville which he and his mother operated. Later she sold the farm, and purchased a home in Rossville. Verna and Esther worked for other families for a number of years and Verna obtained work in Laf

& Company, manufacturers, and Esther became a stenographer, at Levi Strau later at Harker & D attys. both living in Frankfort. After sometime Floyd went to Chicago, and married Cleo Pickanue, of PIQUA, Ohio, (b.Jan.25 1903), on October , 1929, where he established a home. Shortly after the birth of his first son, Robert Eugene, August 31, 1930, Emma lived with him for the winter, and in the spring returned to her home in Rossville. Florence and Frances had also gone to Chicago where they obtained employment, On February 13, 193 , Verna married Carl Adrian Smith, b. September 23,19 , and they established a home in Frankfort. On June , 193 , Florence married Willis Sinclair, b. August 29,1904, and they established their home in Chicago, later moving to Harvey, Illinois. Frances returned to live with Esther in Frankfort. Emma spent considerable time visiting in Frankfort with the three girls and made occasional trips to Chicago, although her health was slowly failing. Her father, Isaac Blickenstaff died
5 in August 1936, and within a few weeks after that she underwent a major operation for hernia. She fully recovered from this operation, but other serious complications set in, and after receiving the news of the sudden death of a very close friend, Mrs. Ervie Cripe, which was a great shock to her, she lost strength, and died at the home of Esther and Frances in Frankfort, Indiana, December 29,1936. The funeral was held in the Church of the Brethern in Rossville, and the services were conducted by a life long friend, Elder John W. Root, who had also preached the funeral sermon of her father. She was buried by the side of her daughter, Anna, in Pleasant View Cemetery, about five miles southwest of Rossville. Her children were:

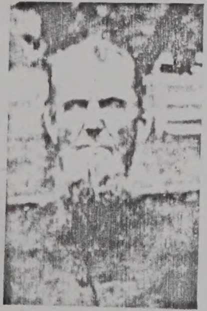
at Champaign, 1930-1932, at Girard, 1938-1941; at Cerro Gordo, 1941-1942. He was the district B.Y.P.D. president, 1924-1926, and has been active also in other capacities in local and district work.



JOHN ARNOLD

JOHN ARNOLD was born in Mineral County, West Virginia, June 16, 1846, to Solomon and Susannah Wine Arnold. He married Mary Hendricks of Cerro Gordo, Illinois, on May 30, 1875; five sons and three daughters were born to them. A second marriage was to Lydia Heeter of North Manchester, Indiana, on June 12, 1892. When the Civil War broke out in 1861 he was left at the age of fifteen to care for his mother and the younger children. They moved to Allen County, Ohio, in 1864. There he was baptized by Elder Joseph Coffman on August 23, 1865. In March 1868 he came to Piatt County, Illinois, locating near La Place. Here he was elected a deacon on December 25, 1872, and a minister on Thanksgiving Day 1876, and was ordained an elder in March 1897. He was a farmer preacher until 1916, when he moved to the village of La Place. He served on the district mission board, preached at many mission points and did much preaching in the small churches, always at his own expense. Several times he served on the Standing Committee, and was elder-in-charge of a number of churches. The Decatur church was organized under his eldership. He died in La Place on August 1, 1929.

ROBERT ATCHISON was elected to the ministry in the Romine church, near Salem, Illinois, in 1877. Later he moved to Adams County, where he served in the Liberty and Concord congregations. His wife was Elizabeth Blickenstaff, daughter of Jacob Blickenstaff. They were the parents of four sons and three daughters. In 1890 he moved to Cerro Gordo, Illinois, where he died on December 5, 1893.

JOHN H. BAKER was born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, on September 23, 1846. He was married to Sarah Cover, also of Pennsylvania, on September 3, 1868. To them were born two sons and four daughters. In December 1885 he came with his family to Fulton County, Illinois, and settled near Astoria. Soon after uniting with the Church of the Brethren in Pennsylvania he was elected to the office of deacon and soon afterwards to the ministry. His ordination to the eldership took place in the Woodland church near Astoria in 1889. He acted as elder-in-charge of five congregations in the district. During his more than forty years of service, most of which was in the period of the free ministry, he did much preaching throughout the district and worked on many committees. He preached his last sermon from a wheelchair. He died on September 5, 1915.

AgMax announces first half earnings

AgMax Inc. of Frankfort recently announced its earnings for the first half of its 1984-85 10-month fiscal year. A $554,078 increase in net earnings produced a five-month net income of $468,879. AgMax's net worth also increased by $383,599 to its present $6,132,169.

The company stated that earnings were up due to reduced operating costs along with greater gross margins and increased grain storage income.

AgMax operates a federally licensed warehouse with 5.5 million bushels of grain storage capacity.

Frankfort lawyer takes new job

David Redmond, 1100 Forest Drive, began his job as deputy attorney general April 1. His new office is located in the State Office Building in Indianapolis.

He was a partner in the law firm of Miller & Redmond, 1202 S. Jackson St., the past 3½ years.

"My responsibilities a to represent the state primarily in bankruptcy proceedings," Redmond said. "The majority of what I will be doing most of the time is concerning taxes due to the state, usually involving business bankruptcy. Almost invariably there are unpaid taxes involved."

Carroll Co. Ind. History 1872

John Kuns, s/o George Kuns emigrated to this county from Mtgy. Co. Ohio. He was born April 14, 1795 in Huntington Co. Pa. When he was 7 years of age his father removed to Mtgy. Co. Ohio. John married the d/o Leonard Wolf in 1817. In 1824 he attended the land sales at Crawfordsville and purchased land and on the 11th day of Oct. 1826 arrived with his family and settled on his land. The "Dunker" Church was organized in the Fall of 1827 by Peter Eyman. Having no meeting-house, he preached at John Kuns's, Samuel Wise's and also at the houses of other brethren. It was Mr. K. who first erected the flouring-mill near Delphi. He also carried on a tannery on his farm. He was a very energetic business man and a shrewd trader. In April 1859 having lost his wife, he removed to Piatt Co. Ill. The last time the writer saw him was on the 8th day of May 1861 when he was on his way to Wild-cat with the view of returning to Illinois with a buxom widow, the future second Mrs. Kuns.

GREAT FIRE OF 1839 DELPHI, IND.: 'Washington Hall' tavern belonging to John Ku loss probably $3,000, no insurance.

Will Records: Piatt County, Illinois

John Kuns departed 19 Oct. 1865, Katy Kuns, widow and Daivd Kuns, Henry Kuns, Levi Kuns, Lewis Kuns, John Heckman, and __________ Heckman, John L. Kuns, William Kuns, Hannah and Elisha Hendricks, Catharine & John Blickenstaff, John Musselman, Lewis Musselman, Jacob Musselman, Samuel and Elizabeth Harshbarger, Heris at Law.

VETERAN DIES AT LAFAYETTE HOME

Silas Truss, Living At Soldiers' Home, Dead; To Be Buried Here.

Silas Truss, a Civil War veteran, died last night at 7:15 at the Lafayette Soldier's home, after an illness which lasted during the five weeks of Mr. Truss' stay there. He had been ill for some time and went to the soldiers' home for both nursing, care and medical treatment.

The deceased who was 85 years old, was born in Pennsylvania to Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Truss, and came here with the family when yet a young boy he was married twice, the first time to Miss Barbara Shively, and to this union the following children were born: Charles Truss of Colorado, Mrs. Elizabeth Baker of Johnstown, Penn. Mrs. Margaret Miller of Sunnyside, Washington, Frank Truss, and Mrs. J. C. Trent, both of Waltz township. The second wife, to whom Mr. Truss was married 32 years ago, survives, and lives in this city.

Surviving also are three sisters, Mrs. Frances Arnold of North Manchester, Mrs. Elizabeth Fisher of the Soldier's home, Lafayette, and Mrs. George Reeves of south of this city. Mrs. Dan Fosnaugh, who died here a few months ago, was a sister of Mr. Truss.

Definite funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The body will arrive here this afternoon, and will be taken to the home of Frank Truss, eight miles southwest of the city.

Mr Truss was a member of the 47 Indiana regiment, served in the Civil War three years, and was a member of the James H. Emmet post.

Brick Church

Mixture of old, new

by Martha Fore

The Oakley Brick Church of the Brethren is a "community within a community," a landmark since 1867.

Its heritage goes beyond 1856, the year of its organization, even beyond 1708, the year of denominational birth.

Oakley Brick Church was formerly the German Baptist Church of the Cerro Gordo District, a member of the fraternity of German Baptists.

Early settlers came in the early 1850's. In 1856 two ministers came to the Oakley area. They were Leonard Blickenstaff and family of Tippecanoe County, Indiana, and Peter Replogle and wife of Carroll County, Indiana. The first meetings were held in school houses and homes.

They met on May 26, 1856, in Daniel Kuns' home, and a church was organized with 10 charter members.

They were Peter Replogle and wife, Daniel Kuns and wife, Leonard Blickenstaff and wife, Jonas Wolfe and wife, and Brother Stuckey and Sister Baer.

This church was known as the Sangamon Valley Church. Later the group discovered there was another congregation with the same name (probably later known as the Sugar Creek Church), so they changed the name to the Cerro Gordo, Macon County.

From this small beginning came the surrounding congregations of Milmine, La Place, and Cerro Gordo.

The first Love Feast was held September 27, 1857, in Blickenstaff's new barn, ¼-mile south of Oakley. Immediately following the communion service, John Blickenstaff and his wife were baptized.

In 1879 a church house was built in Cerro Gordo by John Metzgar at his own expense.

The church territory was divided again in 1884 for the convenience of members living in or near Cerro Gordo.

The east part took the name Cerro Gordo, Piatt County and the west part took the name Oakley.

In 1867 a large brick meeting house was built 2½ miles west of Cerro Gordo. The bricks for the lower part of the builiding were made on the Hiser farm 3 miles west of the church. Other bricks were made on the David Frantz farm on the north side of the section where the church stands.

Meno Stauffer, a minister living in the congregation, was overseer of the carpentry work.

The large audience room occupied the entire main floor. There were two long preacher's tables behind which were seated the ministers facing the congregation. Deacons were seated on the other side of the tables.

The walnut tables were used to build the current pulpit furniture in 1969.

A partition was put in the north end of the building in 1887. The benches that lined the north and south walls of the sanctuary were constructed before the turn of the century.

One out of every three could be converted into a table for use during Love Feast.

MR. DAVID KUNS, one of the most successful farmers of the county, is a native of Ohio, from which state he moved to Indiana. He moved to Macon county in 1853, and in 1856 settled in Piatt county on his present farm of 460 acres. This is considered "one of the best improved farms of the county." It is fenced with hedges into forty and eighty acre fields, and Mr. Kuns has planted on it at least 400 fruit trees, a three-acre grove of evergreens and a five-acre grove (planted in 1874) of ash, walnut, and other trees. He has succeeded in growing some chestnuts, and thinks that people should plant such trees more extensively in this part of the country. In 1867 or 1868 he erected one of the best and largest (containing eighteen rooms with cellar) brick houses in the county. Mr. Kuns was married in 1845, to Margaret Lamb, a lady of English and Scotch descent. They have had one son, Henry L., who married Ella Pierce in 1870, has three children and is now living near Gilroy, Santa Clara county, California. He moved there in 1877, but still owns a farm in Piatt county. Mr. and Mrs. David Kuns are prominent members of the German Baptist church, which they joined after coming to this county. No one who meets them can keep from admiring their great depth of character. The winter of 1881–2 Mr. Kuns and wife spent in California with their son.

BORN: 11-19-1847
FATHER: DAVID KUNS b. ~~M~~ Dayton, Montgomery Co., Ohio ca. 1820. Died 3-12-1906 at age of 86. Son of JOHN (1795-ca. 1865 aged 70 at death)

GRANDPARENTS: GEORGE KUNS & ELIZABETH CRIPE

MOTHER: MARGARET LAMB d. Oct. 190_ age of 70. Daughter of ELLIOTT LAMB b. Boston, Mass. & left Wheeling, West Va. after 1840.

HENRY was the only child. He married MARY E. PEARCE (b. Highland Co., Ohio) in Sciota County, Ohio 3-28-1870.

CHILDREN: HENRY ARTHUR, Civil Engineer with mining enterprises at Berkeley, Calif; MARGARET M. married WARREN WILLIAMS of Lordsburg (now La Verne); LENA m. JOHN NEHER of Merced Co.; DAVID died 1905 at age of 20; ORA m. JAMES M. JOHNSON, businessman of Lordsburg (now La Verne).

Removed with parents from Cass Co., Ind. at age ~~k~~ of 6 to Piatt Co., Ill. High School at Monticello, Ill. and 2 years at Wabash College, Crawfordsville, Ind. Farmed in Piatt Co. Moved family to 33 acre fruit farm near Gilroy, Calif. in 1876. (Gilroy is on the highway between San Jose and Monterey)He experiment with varieties of fruit there. Moved to Merced County, Calif. in 1892. Was there until 1906. In 1904 while handling stock he suffered a severly broken rib which he had to have removed. He moved to Lordsburg, Calif (now La Verne near Pomona in the northeastern section of Los Angeles County). He deeded 18 acres of land to the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church for orphaned children. He was an ardent prohibitionist.

The following is on DAVID KUNS, father of Henry. A grandson, HARVEY ALAN KUNS (now past eighty) owns the HARVEY LINE MOTEL here in town, now leased out to a Lingenfelder family. H. A. Kuns has a nice home just south of the motel and a lovely lodge on the south side of Lake Arrowhead north of San Bernardino where he and Mrs. Kuns (no children, spend much of their time.

DAVID KUNS died March 12, 1906 at the age of 86. According the above source which is partially inaccurate as to his father's marrying his wife shortly after he came to Ohio as he would have been only 7 years old, according to a fairly reliable Carroll County, Indiana history. DAVID KUNS was the oldest son of JOHN b. on homestead farm in Indiana. He was a farmer there until 1853 when he sold out & moved to Piatt Co., Ill. He got 400 acres which Henry L. got. It was valuable land with many large black walnut trees planted by David. He left Piatt Co. in 1892 and moved to Lordsburg (now La Verne). He helped with four others in the establishment of the Brethren college there along with his nephew, JOHN S. KUNS, and three others, (2 of them, I think MUSSELMANs from the family line, no doubt of the second wife of JOHN b. 1795 in Penna.).

According to one source there is a coat of arms listed for the Kuns family, perhaps two. According to another source the average size of the Kuns familys were a little over five children.

3d Series of Pennsylvania Archives where the Kuns name is discussed will appear on the next page.

Wm. Baker's place. He now lives in Nebraska. Mr. Heath has improved all of the 150 acres of land which he now owns. By the use of some ten or twelve thousand tiles he has succeeded in putting nearly every foot of the land under cultivation. The place is well hedged, and six hundred fruit trees and about seven or eight thousand forest trees have been planted. In 1854 Mr. Heath had forty acres in wheat, which yielded thirty bushels to the acre. He used the McCormick reaper for cutting it, and probably this was the first reaper used in the county. Part of the present residence was put up in 1854 and part in 1872. When they first settled on the place a shed answered for a dwelling-place for the family until spring. In 1842 Charity B. Warner and Mr. Heath were united in marriage. They have had eight children, seven of whom are now living: Frances A. married Geo. Robertson, and has four children, Elona, Bertie, Grace and Josephine; Harvey E. married Etta Snyder, and with two children lives in Nebraska; Alfred B. is farming at home; Ellen H. married Mr. Jas. Robertson, has four children, and lives in Nebraska; Hubert A., a former student of the Wesleyan University, and a teacher of this county, is now located in Topeka, Kansas; Eva G. is the wife of Edward Moyer; Ora E. married Owen Hitch, and is living at home. Mr. Heath held the office of school director for two terms.

Mr. Thomas Hiatt, farmer, Cisco, is a native of Lawrence county, Ohio, from which state he moved to Piatt county in 1856. He was married in 1861, to Harriet J. Moffit, a native of Ohio, and has had seven children, Clara E., Winfield S., Lorena F., Wm. H., John E., Martha and Ethyl Maud.

Mr. Patrick B. Hassett, farmer, Cisco, is a native of Ireland, from which country, at the instigation of his uncle, who lived in Canada, he came to America in 1845 or 1846. He came to Illinois in 1854, returned to New York, but in 1867 he settled in Piatt county. He married Ann Hogan, a native of Ireland, and has had four children: Mary, the wife of George Hickman; George, Sarah and Willie.

Mr. David Kuns, one of the most successful farmers of the county, is a native of Ohio, from which state he moved to Indiana. He moved to Macon county in 1853, and in 1856 settled in Piatt county on his present farm of 460 acres. This is considered "one of the best improved farms of the county." It is fenced with hedges into forty and eighty acre fields, and Mr. Kuns has planted on it at least 400 fruit trees, a three-acre grove of evergreens and a five-acre grove (planted in 1874) of ash, walnut, and other trees. He has succeeded in growing some chestnuts, and thinks that people should plant such trees more extensively in this part of the country. In 1867 or 1868 he erected one of the best and largest (containing eighteen rooms with cellar) brick houses in the county. Mr. Kuns was married in 1845, to Margaret Lamb, a lady of English and Scotch descent. They have had one son, Henry L., who married Ella Pierce in 1870, has three children and is now living near Gilroy, Santa Clara county, California. He moved there in 1877, but still owns a farm in Piatt county. Mr. and Mrs. David Kuns are prominent members of the German Baptist church, which they joined after coming to this county. No one who meets them can keep from admiring their great depth of character. The winter of 1881–2 Mr. Kuns and wife spent in California with their son.

Mr. Henry Kuns, farmer, Milmine, was born in Ohio in 1823. He moved from his native state to Indiana "in the timber and among the Indians," but afterward, in 1864, moved to Piatt county and settled on the place which he bought of Mr. Stillman Barber. The present residence was on the place, the orchard was planted and some other improvements were made, but Mr. Kuns has built corn-cribs, cider and scale sheds, and a brick "cooking-house." He has also put out some hedge and 800 fruit trees and 2,000 forest trees, and has put in several hundred rod of tiling. There are some 327 acres in the home farm, upon which has been raised quite good crops. Mr. Kuns owns 160 acres in Willow Branch township, and two farms of 160 acres each in Cerro Gordo township. He has put all improvements on these places, including the planting of some 600 trees on each place. He has also planted 700 trees on a 160-acre farm of his in Sec. 20 of Cerro Gordo township. Two acres of this farm he donated for a school-house. He improved the N.E. ¼ of Sec. 20 in Cerro Gordo township, and gave it to his daughter. Another quarter-section of land, three miles south of Milmine, he gave to one of his daughters. He gave his two boys 160 acres of land apiece in Willow Branch township. Mr. Kuns was married in 1845, to Susanna Shively, who died in 1846. He was married again in 1848, to Caroline Spidle, a native of Pennsylvania, who was reared in Ohio, and married and lived in Indiana for about eighteen years. Eight of their nine children are living: John S., deacon in the German Baptist church, married Sarah Hover, has two children, Dora and Jesse, and lives in Willow Branch township; David married Catharine Klinzman, has three children, and is farming in Nebraska. Barbara, the wife of Geo. W. Tracy, has two children and lives in Christian county; Hannah, the wife of George Ulery, has one child, Manno, and lives in Cerro Gordo township; Jacob, Noah, Mary C. and Daniel F. are at home. Mr. Kuns is a minister in the German Baptist church. Mr. John Kuns has purchased 160 acres of land of his brother who went to Nebraska. He built a large barn in 1875, and in 1877 a brick house containing seventeen rooms, with halls and cellars. It fronts the south, from which view it presents a fine appearance. He has planted on this place between two and three thousand forest trees and five hundred fruit trees. He has had excellent crops on this farm.

MR. JOHN KIEST, farmer and blacksmith, Monticello, is a native of Ohio, from which state he moved in 1856, to Coles county. About 1868 he moved into Piatt county and has been blacksmithing ever since. His shop is now on Willow Branch. He was married to Rebecca Gray, and has had six children, all of whom are living, Wm. P., Sophia R., Nathan B., Maggie E., Estella and Elmer.

MR. PETER LUX, farmer, Bement, was born in France, in 1813. He came to America when nineteen years of age, and started a blacksmith shop. He enlisted in the army and was a soldier for eight years, and in 1837 was called to help take the Indians west. He came back to Indiana in 1838, and that fall went west with another troup of Indians, returning to Indiana in March, 1839. In 1840 he started on his third trip west, returning in 1841, when he again began blacksmithing. He soon sold out and bought a farm four miles south of Logansport, Indiana. He remained on the farm two years, then renting it went to Logansport and again at blacksmithing. He sold his shop and, returning to the farm, built a nice house, which as soon as finished burned down, his loss being about $5.000. He then built a log cabin, in which he lived a year. Mr. Lux moved to Illinois in 1862, rented a farm for one year, then bought the farm on which he now lives; for eight years lived in a small house, then built his present residence and barn. He has his farm in good condition, having done all the improving. It is well hedged, and he has an orchard of 250 trees. Mrs. Peter Lux was born in Hagertown, Maryland, in 1823. She was in Baltimore until she was fifteen years of age, then spent a year in Ohio, after which she came to Logansport, Indiana, where she married Mr. Lux. They have thirteen children, whose ages range from twelve to forty years, and whose names are as follows: John, Anna, Peter, Henry, Susan, Nicholas I., Martin, Jacob O., Clara L., Augustus U., Charles W., Harvey A. and Sarah K.

Dear Delores,

Finally! I am sending you the John S. Kuns lineage I told you about When I called you. It needs to be updated more. Judy Gifford, whom I obtained the information from is an extremely busy lady and hopes to retire next year. She has promised me she Will help me at that time. Judy not only Works full time but because she is an extremely talented musician is involved in that area.

I Wish I could find my Mary Elizabeth Wolf. (lineage)

I am going to make another trip to Greene Co. Ohio where my Grandmother Was born. (Its her mother I am trying to find.) There are several people working on Wolf families there. Maybe I can pick up on something.

I recently fell into a jack pot of information on my Great Grandmother on my mother's side. A Frank Harris in Wichita had all the information clear back to Switzerland in 1700.

We had a house full for the Thanksgiving holiday. I am busy trying to get things back to normal here. So must close and do just that.

Sincerely,
Margaret Townsend

AMOS WOLF KUNS

Flora, Ind., Feb. 27—(Tribune Area Special)—Amos Wolf Kuns, 73, retired farmer, died in the Kneippe Spring sanatorium near Rome City, Sunday night after a short illness. His home was on East Columbia street, Flora.

The deceased was the son of Lewis and Catherine Wolf Kuns, and was born in Piatt, county, Ill. He was married to Sarah J. Clark, who died April 14, 1928. Later he married Flora Craig who survives as the widow.

Surviving also are two sons, Raymond of New Carlisle, and Russell of Flora; two stepchildren, Lewis Craig of Flora, and Mrs. Garnet Timmons of California.

Funeral services will be held at the Flora First Brethren church of which the deceased was a member, with the Revs. Bryant and Bert Hodge in charge. Burial will follow in Maple Lawn cemetery. The body will be returned from the Leiter funeral home to the residence Wednesday evening. The time of the funeral has not been decided.

RUBY ALICE KUNS HITT - FAMILY HISTORY

(As related to Eric N. Kuns in a letter dated 18 May 1991)

Address: 7814 Canadian Drive
P.O. Box 5334
Mojave Valley, Arizona 86440

My father was Phineas Ernst Kuns - son of Leonard Kuns. According to records which were gathered by Samuel Kuns in Flory, Indiana, my forebearers came to America from Germany before the Revolutionary War. They were Old Order German Baptists (Dunkards) and settled in Lancaster, Penn. where a cousin, Morris Elstun still resides.

My grandfather, Leonard married Catherine Oaks and they had seven children:

- Anna King
- Lovinia Moore
- Perthena Elston
- Lydia Cornelius
- Lewis
- Daniel
- Phineas

All are now deceased.

My father was born in Missouri and his mother died three months later. She was buried in Cerro Gordo, Illinois. Grandpa left Missouri when my father was four years old. He told me that he walked all the way to North Dakota. Grandfather moved to Whittier, California in 1908, but my father stayed in North Dakota and later moved to Michigan.

Two of my father's uncles founded LaVerne, Calif. (once called Raisen City) and there is a park still there (Kuns Park) in their honor.

I had two brothers, Wilfred Gardner Kuns born in 1914 - now deceased, Leonard Chauncey Kuns born in 1919 - living in Whittier, Calif. and one sister, Dorothea Fae Chaffin of Corona, Calif.

My grandfather and three of my aunts were German Baptists and wore the old habit (somewhat similar to Amish) until they died. Grandpa, Aunt Lydia, Aunt Anna, and my father and mother are all buried in the church cemetery in Whittier, Calif. The old Dunkard church is still there, but has been sold and all the members moved to Modesto, Calif. where there are still four churches. Aunt Perthena and Uncle Danny are buried there.

My parents were not of the Old Order (Dunkards) but split with the Church of the Brethren. My brother, Leonard's son, Steven is pastor of that church in Whittier and his brother, Paul is a missionary mechanic to the Central States of Africa.

My sister, Dorothea has some of the old Dunkard Vindicators that tell how my grandpa and family travelled more than 100 miles by wagon to go to the Dunkard Annual Meetings in N. Dakota.

My father's family spoke Pennsylvania (a German Dialect) Dutch and even though they were born and raised in America, my father could not speak English until he went to school.

RUBY ALICE KUNS HITT - FAMILY HISTORY
(As related to Eric N. Kuns in a letter dated 15 May 1991)

Address: 7814 Canadian Drive
P.O. Box 5334
Mojave Valley, Arizona 86440

My father was Phineas Ernst Kuns - son of Leonard Kuns. According to records which were gathered by Samuel Kuns in Flora, Indiana, my forebearers came to America from Germany before the Revolutionary War. They were Old Order German Baptists (Dunkards) and settled in Lancaster, Penn. where a cousin, Morris Elstun still resides.

My grandfather, Leonard married Catherine Oaks and they had seven children:

Anna King
Lovinia Moore
Parthena Elston
Lydia Cornelius
Lewis
Daniel
Phineas

All are now deceased.

My father was born in Missouri and his mother died three months later. She was buried in Cerro Gordo, Illinois. Grandpa left Missouri when my father was four years old. He told me that he walked all the way to North Dakota. Grandfather moved to Whittier, California in 1908, but my father stayed in North Dakota and later moved to Michigan.

Two of my father's uncles founded LaVerne, Calif. (once called Raisen City) and there is a park still there (Kuns Park) in their honor.

I had two brothers, Wilfred Gardner Kuns born in 1914 - now deceased, Leonard Chauncey Kuns born in 1919 - living in Whittier, Calif. and one sister, Dorothea Fae Chaffin of Corona, Calif.

My grandfather and three of my aunts were German Baptists and wore the old habit (somewhat similar to Amish) until they died. Grandpa, Aunt Lydia, Aunt Anna, and my father and mother are all buried in the church cemetery in Whittier, Calif. The old Dunkard church is still there, but has been sold and all the members moved to Modesto, Calif. where there are still four churches. Aunt Parthena and Uncle Danny are buried there.

My parents were not of the Old Order (Dunkards) but split with the Church of the Brethren. My brother, Leonard's son, Steven is pastor of that church in Whittier and his brother Paul is a missionary mechanic to the Central States of Africa.

My sister, Dorothea has some of the old Dunkard Vindicators that tell how my grandpa and family traveled more than 100 miles by wagon to go to the Dunkard Annual Meetings in N. Dakota.

My father's family spoke Pennsylvania (a German Dialect) Dutch and even though they were born and raised in America, my father could not speak English until he went to school.

There will be no war records of any of the generations prior to mine because all were conscientious objectors. During the Revolutionary War, they fed the troops as all were farmers. During World War II, my two cousins (Anna's boys) were assigned to the dirtiest jobs possible in hospitals because they chose not to fight.

I wish I knew more about my ancestors, also. I do know Uncle Samuel had a whole book on the family history. I was only fourteen when we visited in Flory, Indiana on our way to California. I'm sure he said he got a lot of information from the Library of Congress.

RUFUS LEO (ELI) KUNS - LIFE HISTORY

Rufus Leo (Eli) Kuns was born on July 16, 1879 in Milmine Township, Piatt County, Illinois. He was the son of John W. and Elizabeth (Wise) Kuns. His birth certificate names him Eli, but by the time of the 1880 Census, he is listed as Rufus. According to his nephew, Melvin Fisher, Rufus had a bad case of measles when he was young and, as a result, was quite deaf. He married Vera Alice Hilbert on March 20, 1902, in Lonoke, Lonoke County, Arkansas. Vera was born March 1, 1882 in Lansing, Michigan, the oldest daughter of Wallace M. and Anna (Moore) Hilbert. Vera and Rufus were the parents of four children: Neal Howard, born March 15,1900 (figure that out!); Anna May (later known as Jean), born August 22, 1903; Floyd John, born August 15, 1905, and Lucile Elizabeth, born November 19, 1907.

Rufus moved his family from Milmine to between Flora and Camden, Indiana in about 1911. They were a farming family. When Rufus's wife, Vera died in Jackson Township, Carroll County, on October 17, 1918, this was a big blow to Rufus. Apparently, due to his deafness, he had great difficulty in communicating. His wife was a big aid to him in this area. Without her, and left with four children to raise, he did not handle the situation well. The oldest son, Neal, went out on his own to Valparaiso, Indiana, and the other siblings, to escape a now-abusive father, went to live with their Aunt Daphne (Hilbert) Cox in Valparaiso. Rufus had a brief marriage to Margaret Douglas in Lafayette, Indiana on April 16, 1919. She had answered a newspaper request for marriage. This ended in divorce after the bride ran away. Rufus subsequently married Carrie Helen Abbott of Moody, Texas on September 9, 1920.

Rufus used to run trap lines along the railroad tracks near Camden and this is where he died, struck by a train on December 17, 1921. Apparently, he did not hear the train and died instantly. He is buried in the Musselman Cemetery in Camden, Indiana.

CHRISTMAS 2003

Melanie and Eric Kuns Family - 2003

The Kuns Family is doing fine, this holiday season. We have plenty of activities to keep us out of (or into!) trouble. The latest projects are to finish the rooms in the basement floor and to construct shelving in the garage to help us stay (or become) organized. The downstairs will be divided up into 2 bedrooms, a hobby room, family room, bathroom, and food storage room. With the addition of the bedrooms, Jeremy and Jordan will no longer have to share a bedroom. There is hope that they might survive their childhood!

Eric has been doing an unusual amount of travel this year in conjunction with his work. He usually avoids travel for his business because then Melanie isn't around to take care of him. Could it be that he misses his family when he is away?!! With trips to Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania; Norfolk, Virginia; and Washington, D.C., Eric managed to mix business with pleasure. He was able to visit with many relatives in Pennsylvania whom he had not seen in at least 13 years. In addition, while in Virginia at the Yorktown battlefield, he imagined being present for the surrender of the British to General Washington, all but ending the War of Independence. Other high points of the year were backpacking in the High Uintah Mountains with all of his sons, his brother, and nephew and climbing Mt. Borah, already covered with snow, with the Young Men. You're only as old as you think!

Melanie's main project this year has been to plant and take care of the vegetable garden and to organize the building of the shelving in the garage and the finishing of the downstairs. She very much wants to make the house a place where our children want to bring their friends. Melanie is still active in the Relief Society Presidency in our ward and is dedicated to getting our children around to all of their many activities. When she can, Melanie also still enjoys her craft projects.

Joshua (10th Grade) wanted a change in scenery and is going to high school with his cousin in Utah. He is doing very well in his studies and had an excellent baseball season. He was selected first team all-state as catcher on his high school team, which went unbeaten – 20 wins and no losses until the state championship, where they lost by one run to the championship team.

Jeremy (9th Grade) is finishing his last year of junior high school. Although school is not a priority for Jeremy, he knows that privileges come from his studies, and he is doing fine. Both he and brother, Josh are now taller than their parents. That doesn't mean that they can beat the old folks at basketball and other activities – with age comes craftiness! Jeremy played Babe Ruth baseball, school basketball, and sings in the school choir. Like Josh, this was Jeremy's first full season of playing catcher in baseball and he loved it.

Our Tamara (6th Grade) still performs in her singing group and has blossomed into a young lady. She is thrilled to be in the Young Women's organization of our church and to participate in their activities. She is not quite as excited about going backpacking and mountain climbing with her father and brothers … "Where can I plug in my curling iron?" Tall for her age, Tamara has excelled at volleyball and is getting geared up for basketball.

Jordan (4th Grade) also enjoys a variety of activities. Like Tamara, he is singing in a performing group. Like his brothers, he plays basketball and baseball. 2003 was his first year of Little League baseball and he did well. In addition, he wrested for his school and took third place in the Region. We knew that all of that wrestling with his older brothers would do some good! Jordan is a Bear in the Cub Scouts and is looking forward to further advancement.

We are thankful for the many blessings that our Heavenly Father has given us and wish you and yours a happy holiday season!

With Love,
Eric Kuns and Family

David Heckman came to Illinois with his parents in 1863.

*the date on Jesse C. Heckman is recorded in the W. Frantz Tombstone Inscriptions as being born 10 Sep 1876, since Irwin is reported born May 1876, this seems unlikely a child this premature would live until 27 Aug 1879, so I estimated it may be 1878 rather than 1876. DB.

Wm. T. Heckman was a school teacher in Macon Co. Ill. From 1899-1946 engaged in farming on the Heckman homestead in Oakley. Ordained an Elder in 1911 in the Oakley Brick Church; Minister there from 1901-1949. Had 3 sons & 2 dau.

judgment. He died at McPherson, Kansas, on April 23, 1933.

John Heckman, Sr., was born in Franklin County, Virginia, June 28, 1810. In April of the next year the father, David Heckman, and three of his married sisters (the three married three Kinsey brothers) went by wagon to Wheeling, Virginia. Here they built a raft of logs and floated their belongings down the Ohio River to Cincinnati; there they landed and traveled north to near New Carlisle, where they established homes in the heavily wooded new country. They lived in the vicinity of the Donnels Creek church and were among its early members. He married Louiseana Keplinger; to them was born one daughter. After his wife's early death he married Elizabeth Beanblossom Wones, a widow with three sons. One daughter and two sons were born to this union. A few months after he moved to Bond County, Illinois, his wife died, on February 3, 1860. On May 15 following, he married Lavina Moyer Goshorn, formerly of Wayne County, Ohio, a widow with one daughter; she became the mother of Elder John Heckman of Polo, Illinois, the only child of this union. She died May 14, 1865. Again he married, this time Mrs. Cassandra Powers of Ohio, a widow with one daughter. He moved to Bond County, Illinois, in the fall of 1859. The old Hurricane Creek church stood on the corner of his farm. There he lived for six years, then immediately following the death of his wife in 1865 he moved near Girard, Illinois, and lived on a farm. He read much, as was indicated by the number and character of the books in his library. His death occurred on March 28, 1867. His funeral was held in the Pleasant Hill schoolhouse as the church under construction was not yet completed.

~~Lucile Gibson Heckman, the daughter of George W. and Rebecca Harshbarger Gibson, was born at Girard, Illinois, on August 10, 1902. Mrs. Gibson died at Lucile's birth and Lucile was taken into the home of her aunt, where she lived for twelve years, until her aunt's death. Then she made her home with her father and her stepmother. She became a member of the Church of the Brethren at Girard at the age of ten years. Mount Morris College granted her A.B. degree in 1924. She was married to Clarence Heckman on June 3, 1924. They had hoped to go to India, but when the General Mission Board asked them to go to Nigeria they were willing to go there. Her work in Nigeria included serving as housemother at the Hillcrest School, 1942-1946, and as field treasurer of the Africa mission since 1937.~~

B. F. HECKMAN

B. FRANKLIN HECKMAN was born near Hammond, Illinois, September 22, 1882. He was the son of David and Elizabeth Miller Heckman, who with their family moved into the Oakley congregation in 1891. He became a member of this congregation in October 1898. He attended Mount Morris College from 1901 to 1905, and in June 1905 was married to Minna Mote of Union City, Ohio. The two following years he was principal of the Cerro Gordo high school. The Cerro Gordo church called him to the ministry on December 31, 1905. In 1907 he entered Bethany Biblical Seminary; finished the four-year course; taught Hebrew and Old Testament exegesis for one year, and also did some graduate work at the University of Chicago. He had charge of rescue mission work in Chicago, and conducted a number of Bible institutes in different states. In 1910 he was pastor and evangelist at the mission in Springfield, Illinois. In 1911 he, with his wife and two daughters, went to the China mission field and was stationed at Ping Ting Chou. After fifteen months he contracted smallpox and died on January 14, 1913, the first Brethren missionary to give up his life while in service on the China field.

tion were held in the barn of Brother Fitz; meetings were held all day and meals were served. He was chosen as the first minister of the Woodland church after that building had been erected. His last days were spent in Astoria, Illinois.

MICHAEL FLORY

MICHAEL FLORY was born at Dayton, Virginia, July 26, 1849, the son of Michael and Nancy Warner Flory. He was baptized at Rossville, Indiana, in 1880. On November 24, 1869, he married Mary Warner; to them were born six sons and four daughters. His second wife was Lavina Bowman, whom he married on October 7, 1924. He farmed in Indiana and Illinois, and later moved to Girard, Illinois, to engage in the lumber business. He was elected to the ministry at Rossville and ordained to the eldership at Girard, in 1891. As minister and elder he served these two churches, and was for three and one-half years the pastor at Decatur. He was the first superintendent of the Home at Girard. He served in district meetings as moderator and reader, held many evangelistic meetings, and officiated at many marriages and funerals. His death occurred at Girard on June 23, 1931.

ANNA SHULL FORNEY

ANNA SHULL FORNEY was born to George and Elizabeth Brubaker Shull on January 9, 1871. Early in life she united with the Church of the Brethren. On January 1, 1896, she married Daniel L. Forney of North Manchester, Indiana; six daughters were born to them. She took a teacher's course and three years of Bible study at Mount Morris College, finished the Bible course at Manchester College, and taught in country schools. She and her husband did mission work at Stuttgart, Arkansas. They went to the India mission field in 1897 and located at Navsari. When the famine broke out in 1900 they cared for a number of famine children. When the mission house at Jalalpor was completed, they moved there, remaining at that place until their return to America in 1904 because of health conditions. Later they spent another and shorter term of service in India. Mrs. Forney died at La Verne, California, on April 13, 1938.

ELLEN FORNEY

ELLEN HECKMAN WAGONER FORNEY was born near Hammond, Illinois, September 23, 1885; her parents were David and Elizabeth Miller Heckman. She grew up in the Oakley church, and was baptized there by Elder A. J. Nickey on July 11, 1896. Ellen could not remember when she was not interested in the work of the church. Her desire to be a missionary grew from her interest in Sunday-school and missionary reading circle work. One year at Mount Morris College was followed by two years at Bethany Biblical Seminary. On March 5, 1911, she married Elmer Wagoner of La Place, Illinois, and for a year their home was in the La Place congregation. They lived at Mount Morris from 1913 until 1917, when they entered Bethany Biblical Seminary. They had two daughters. After a year at Bulsar in language study they were transferred to Vyara. A year later they returned to Bulsar to take over the work when

A. W. Ross and family went on furlough. Besides being a central point for entertaining missionaries and guests, Bulsar was the home of a boys' school. In the spring of 1927 the Wagoners left India for their first furlough; because of a deficit in mission funds they were detained in America until October 1929. During this time they served the Peebles and Marble Furnace churches in Southern Ohio. Returning to Vyara in 1929 they did traveling evangelistic work, living in tents. Brother Wagoner passed away on November 21, 1930. Returning to America a year later, Mrs. Wagoner worked in Elgin and visited churches. In 1941 she married Elder Daniel L. Forney of La Verne, California. She served as regional director of women's work in California for three years. Ellen passed away on November 21, 1947.

~~JOHN CLAYBORN FORNEY was the son of David and Nancy Rice Forney. He was born near Parkersburg, Illinois, December 28, 1866. He married Effie Mae Lynn of Bellflower, Illinois, on December 10, 1890; two sons and six daughters were born to them. They also made a home for two orphan boys. He was a farmer. Uniting with the Church of the Brethren, probably in January 1886, he was baptized by Elder Menno Stouffer. Elected to the ministry in 1892, he was ordained to the eldership in December 1902. As a free minister he served in the Walnut Grove church near Parkersburg, Illinois, for ten years and at Columbus, North Dakota, two and one-half years. As pastor and elder he was at Kenmare, North Dakota, nine years, at Rock Lake, North Dakota, seven years, and at Winona, Minnesota, twelve years. Twice he was a member of Standing Committee. He died at Winona on August 10, 1936.~~

~~MICHAEL FORNEY, the son of Elder John Forney, was born near Meyersdale, Pennsylvania, January 14, 1811. He married Rachel Horner of Pennsylvania and to them were born four sons and six daughters. He was a farmer, a cooper and a tanner, and also operated a cider press. When twenty-two years old he united with the Church of the Brethren. From 1863 to 1871 he had the oversight of the Big Creek (now Walnut Grove) church, Illinois. He assisted in the organization of some surrounding churches and did much preaching in adjoining territory. He died in Fillmore County, Nebraska, on March 20, 1894.~~

~~SAMUEL M. FORNEY was born in Somerset County, Pennsylvania, October 23, 1836. His father and his grandfather were elders in the Church of the Brethren. Some normal training at Berlin and Meyersdale prepared him for teaching when he was nineteen years old. In 1857 he moved with his father to Richland County, Illinois. In 1859 he was converted while attending a meeting at the Arnold's Grove church. Upon his return home that fall he was present at the organization of the Big Creek (now Walnut Grove) church, and on September 24, about three months after his baptism, he was called to the ministry. Calls for preaching came from as far as thirty to seventy-five miles from home; swollen streams and dangerous journeys were frequent experiences. In 1862 he was married to Catherine Kimmel; to them were born eight children. In 1871 Brother Forney was ordained an elder. In 1881 the family moved to Kearney, Nebraska, where, on May 28 of the same year, he organized a church. He assisted in organizing eight other churches in that state, and served on Standing Committee three times. He traveled thousands of miles in church work, received on an average less than his expenses. Looking back over nearly a half-century of service in the ministry, he only wished that he had more time to serve better.~~

After attending college at Marion, Indiana, in 1898, for a number of years he taught in the schools of Macon County. He also took courses in agriculture at the University of Illinois, qualifying as a corn judge. For several years he gave lectures on seeds and soils in many counties of Illinois and served as a judge of agricultural exhibits under a license from the state university. He was elected to the ministry in the Oakley church on November 30, 1906, and on November 10, 1916, was ordained to the eldership. He attended Bethany Biblical Seminary two years. Evangelistic services were conducted by him in many churches in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Missouri, Colorado, and Kansas; his converts were numbered by the hundreds. He served on the Standing Committee a number of times, officiated as moderator of district meeting, was an efficient secretary of the board of administration for nine years, represented the district as a member of the trustee board of Manchester College, was elder of a number of the churches of the district, was a member of the district historical committee, and served the district in other capacities. He died on December 28, 1943.

Brother Havice accepted the pastorate of the Colorado Springs, Colorado Church of the Brethren, succeeding Brother Van B. Wright, who took up the pastorate in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma.

The Havice family at present (1958) are living in the parsonage at 1517 Edith Lane.

While attending McPherson College, Brother Havice served as pastor for the Congregational Christian Church in Little River, Kansas, a few miles to the northwest of McPherson. The family lived in the parsonage of the church and Jack commuted to school. While attending college, Jack was a member of the golf team and was lettered.

Brother Havice says that in 1953 he and his wife had conversion experiences. That was one of the years they were living in Lewistown, Pennsylvania

64.5.7.1.9 HECKMAN, Ellen

Ellen Heckman, who became Mrs. J. E. Wagoner and later Mrs. D. L. Farney, was the daughter of David and Elizabeth Miller Heckman, and was born near Hammond, Illinois, September 23, 1885. She was the eighth child in a family of ten; she was the only daughter to live to maturity. She grew up with her five brothers, John, Will, I.D., Frank, and J. Hugh, under constant love and devotion of consecrated Christian parents. Her girlhood days were lived near Cerro Gordo, Illinois, where she attended the district school and later high school in town. She accepted Christ as her Saviour between eleven and twelve years of age and became a member of the Oakley Church of the Brethren.

Ellen was always interested in Sunday School, Christian Workers and the Missionary Circle work and spent one summer in the Springfield, Illinois Mission. She spent one year at Mt. Morris College, Illinois, and later spent two years in Bethany Biblical School. Then for several years she ministered to her mother who was in poor health. Meantime, her parents moved to Colorado and sometime later Ellen joined them in Rocky Ford, where she took an active part in the work of the Church of the Brethren for more than a year. She then returned to Cerro Gordo, Illinois and was united in marriage to J. Elmer Wagoner March 5, 1911. In the autumn of 1913 they moved to Mt. Morris Illinois, living there for four years, where Brother Wagoner took the liberal arts course in the College, and Ellen's duties were largely in the home which had been blessed with the coming of two daughters, Elizabeth Evelyn and Emma Josephine.

In 1917, the Wagoner's went to Chicago and took up studies in Bethany Bible School. In 1919 they heard the call for workers to go to the India Mission Field, and early in the year of 1920 they sailed for India by way of the Pacific ocean. The story of their work and experiences in this field would make a book, but space here forbids that story--only to say they did splendid service.

They came home on their first furlough in 1927 and, because of a deficit in Mission Funds, did not return to India until October 1929. In 1930 Brother Wagoner took suddenly ill and lived only a few days, passing away on November 21. Sister Wagoner and the girls bravely carried on the work to the best of their ability, with the help of other missionaries. About a year or so later, they returned to the United States by way of Palestine; this visit to the Holy Land remained a high spot in Ellen's memory.

After returning to this country, they settled in McPherson, Kansas where Sister Wagoner worked as assistant college librarian to help "Beth" and "Jo" through college. They then went to Chicago, Illinois, where Sister Wagoner worked in the Brethren Publishing house at Elgin while the girls were in nurses training at the Chicago Presbyterian Hospital. Sorrow again came to Sister Wagoner when her daughter, Jo, passed away November 7, 1936.

In the spring of 1941, Sister Wagoner went to LaVerne, California, and shortly after was united in marriage with Elder Daniel L. Forney, who had been a co-laborer in the India Mission Field. But ill health soon became the lot of both of them and, while Ellen was in a San Diego Hospital for a major operation, Brother Forney was called to his eternal home and not long after Ellen, though seemingly recovering nicely, passed away quietly in her sleep, November 21, 1947. Ellen had always taken a very active part in the work of the church of the Brethren wherever she resided. Her brother, Frank, died in the China Mission field January 14, 1913. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints."

HECKMAN, J. Hugh

Heckman is a name well known among Brethren ministers, and Colorado was fortunate in having two of them serve their churches. J. Hugh Heckman, the subject of this sketch, was the son of David and Elizabeth Miller Heckman; was born in Illinois, July 17, 1887, and passed away in McPherson, Kansas in April 1933. J. Hugh had one sister and four brothers. His brother, B.F., a missionary to China, died in that country January 14, 1913 and is buried in China; his brother, W.T., was a minister also; and his sister, Ellen, served as a missionary in India with her husband J. Elmer Wagoner. There is no record available giving the date of J. Hugh's baptism and election to the ministry, but he was already a minister when he lived in Rocky Ford, Colorado for a few years in the early 1900's.

While here, he filled pulpit appointments and taught a class of young men, two of whom became ministers in the Church of the Brethren and served Colorado Churches--Maurice S. Frantz and Ralph W. Hoover; one, Carl Cline, of Denver is an attorney at law.

We have no record of all his educational work and attainments, but he attended Mt. Morris College, Illinois, and soon after this he was a teacher in Bethany Biblical Seminary for twelve years.

From 1928 until the time of his death in 1933, Brother Heckman was a teacher of Bible and Philosophy in McPherson College, Kansas. Brother Heckman had never had a robust body and while teaching at McPherson College was compelled to rest one semester. Though frail in body, his mind was very alert and his zeal for the Lord's work never abated, he was a man of sterling character.

During his adult life, he wrote two books: "Second Year Teacher Training Book" and "The Teacher's Appreciation of the Old Testament," and for years contributed a page to the Brethren's "Teacher's Monthly."

His pupils loved him and almost the whole college group attended his funeral services, held in the Church of the Brethren at McPherson, Kansas.

Brother J. Hugh Heckman took up the pastorate at the Fruita, Colorado Church of the Brethren in 1925, hoping the Colorado climate would be beneficial to his health. He was there about three years. Earlier, while living in Colorado, he had done some work in Colorado Springs when that Church was still a Mission Point. He perhaps assisted other Colorado churches.

J. Hugh and Jennie Sellers of Ohio were united in marriage August 19,in 1911. They had met at Mt. Morris College. Both had come from devout Christian homes and now combined their lives to work more fully for the Lord, in the home, the school and the Church. While at Mt. Morris College,Jennie had served as the girls' matron for one year and also taught a Sunday School class of college girls. To Hugh and Jennie were born three children: Grace, Paul, and Vera. Paul passed away April 4, 1937 at the age of 23 years, in Elgin, Illinois. He had been ordained into the Christian Ministry in 1936.

Sister J. Hugh Heckman stayed in McPherson, Kansas, until the children finished their college courses, bravely shouldering the responsibility,helping them through school. Eleven years after Brother Heckman's death, Jennie Heckman was united in marriage with Logan J. Miller of Tiffen, Ohio, July 23 1944, but enjoyed her new home only a short time. After a severe cerebral hemorrhage on November 27, 1944, she entered into rest.

Grace is now Mrs. Gottman and Vera, Mrs. Larson.

HECKMAN, S. J.

Brother S. J. Heckman was born in Franklin County, Virginia, October 24 1871. His parents were Creed T. Heckman and Hannah Ikenberry Heckman. His common school education was obtained mostly in eastern Kansas where he lived when a young man, and at the age of 23 years he accepted Jesus Christ as his Saviour and was baptized at the Appanoose, Kansas Church of the Brethren in 1891. Not long after this, he was advanced to the office of Elder. Brother Heckman served this Church in the free ministry. He served the Overbrook, Kansas Church for five years. He then accepted the pastorate of the Colorado Springs Church for five years.

He also served this Church as assistant pastor without pay for another 7½ years, making a total of almost twenty years free service for the Church he loves. Brother Heckman had taken a course in Bethany Bible School,Chicago the winter of 1911-1912.

S. J. was married to Edna Sherfy, October 24, 1894. To this union were born three daughters.

After serving the Colorado Springs, Colorado Church, the Heckman's went to McPherson, Kansas, and a few years later Sister Heckman was called to her Eternal Home.

Brother Heckman retired from active work after moving to McPherson,

AMOS J. NICKEY AND WIFE

AMOS JOSEPH NICKEY, son of Benjamin Franklin and Catharine Wert Nickey, was born in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, November 11, 1853. He taught several years in Pennsylvania and then came to Macon County, Illinois, when a young man. In 1878 he was baptized by Elder Jacob Waggoner. He married Mary Heckman on March 2, 1880; three sons and three daughters were born to them. Two daughters, Flora and Barbara, served as missionaries in India. From 1877 to 1880 he taught in Macon County. He was called to the ministry near Oakley, Illinois, January 2, 1882, and was ordained to the eldership on October 23, 1905. His record of church service is as follows: farmer-minister at Oakley, 1880-1898; Juniata, Nebraska, 1898-1903; Alvo, Nebraska, 1903-1907; Kearney, Nebraska, 1907-1916; minister and elder, Monticello, Minnesota, 1916-1935; member of the Nebraska district mission board, 1903-1916; evangelist; member, committee of arrangements for the 1926 Annual Conference at Lincoln, Nebraska; liberal contributor to foreign missions. His last years were spent at North Manchester, Indiana, where he died on February 5, 1940.

BARBARA MARIE NICKEY was born to Amos J. and Mary Heckman Nickey at Oakley, Illinois, on April 5, 1886. She united with the Church of the Brethren in the Oakley congregation, September 19, 1897. She spent two years teaching public school in Nebraska after the family moved there, then went to Mount Morris College and later to Bethany Biblical Seminary. In 1908 she entered the American Medical Missionary College of Battle Creek, Michigan, which two years later united with the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Chicago; there she took the last two years of her medical work and received her M.D. degree in June 1912. She was offered a place on the faculty of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, but took up work in the Cook County Hospital, where she remained until September 1914. Dr. Nickey sailed for India in January 1915 to realize her ambition to become a missionary doctor. Beginning her medical work at Dahanu, she was handicapped by meager medical facilities and by caste prejudice. Later a dispensary was built and, in 1926, the present hospital was erected. After more than thirty years of service Dr. Nickey is known and loved over all that territory.

courage the many who knew him and heard him preach.

A large concourse gathered for the funeral services Feb. 4 at Battle Creek. The services were conducted by Elder W. W. Slabaugh, assisted by Brethren Elmer Leckrone and Harley Townsend. The body was transported to Minnesota and a service in charge of Eld. J. E. Rolston was held in the Worthington Church of the Brethren. Of his immediate family, his widow, one brother and two sisters survive.

A statement of appreciation, framed by Brethren Royal Frantz and Wm. Cheal, follows:

The Sunfield church feels keenly the loss of Bro. D. H. Keller. Brother and Sister Keller came to us in a time of great need, when the church was unable to give a full support to its pastor. By their sacrificial service to the church, the church has been enlarged in membership and built up spiritually. They not only have won the love and respect of the entire community, but have enjoyed the co-operation of other churches.

As we are making plans to entertain the district meeting next August we shall greatly miss the leadership and organizing ability of Bro. Keller.

We thank God for his life and for the privilege we have had of working with him. May the influence of his unselfish service here continue to be a challenge to each one of this church.

Battle Creek, Mich. F. E. Mallott.

Elder Amos Joseph Nickey

Amos Joseph Nickey, eldest of twelve children of Benjamin F. and Catharine Wert Nickey, was born at Carlisle, Pa., Nov. 11, 1853.

His early years were spent in his native state where he taught in the public schools for a few years previous to locating in Cerro Gordo, Ill., where he continued public school teaching.

He united with the Church of the Brethren at La Place, Ill., in 1878. On March 2, 1880, he was united in marriage to Mary Heckman.

The church at Cerro Gordo recognized the loyalty, devotion and abilities of Brother and Sister Nickey, and on Dec. 30, 1881, Bro. Nickey was called to the ministry. He accepted the call and on Jan. 2, 1882, was duly installed. On Jan. 8, 1885, the church advanced him to the second degree of the ministry. Later they labored in the Oakley, Ill., congregation.

After fifteen years of faithful and fruitful service in Illinois they located in Nebraska, serving five years in the Juniata church, four years in the Alvo church, and the last nine years of their service in Nebraska in the Kearney congregation. On Oct. 23, 1905, while serving the Alvo church, Bro. Nickey was ordained to the full ministry. During thirteen of the eighteen years spent in Nebraska he served on the district mission board.

In 1916 they located in Minnesota where they organized the Monticello church. Brother and Sister Nickey were deeply interested in spreading the gospel of Jesus Christ. They shared the responsibilities and joys of carrying the good news to those in isolated places. County Sunday-school association, county ministerial association and district mission board work claimed much of their time and effort.

When their eldest daughter, Flora, with her husband, Bro. A. W. Ross, went to the India mission field in 1904, the missionary interest of Brother and Sister Nickey extended to lands beyond the seas. Through the Rosses they learned that a tract of land was needed to provide native Christians, regardless of caste, with a place to build homes. A splendid contribution by the Nickeys made possible the acquiring of this land, and today the church at Bulsar, India, and a number of Christian homes, stand on ground supplied by this fund, which is continuous in its service to native Christians. The Nickeys also made the first subscription and contribution by members of the Church of the Brethren to the support of an orphan student on foreign soil.

Six children were born to Brother and Sister Nickey, two of whom passed to the beyond in infancy. Those surviving are: Mrs. Flora Ross Bjorklund of North Manchester, Ind.; Paul A. Nickey of Monticello, Minn.; Dr. Barbara M. Nickey, medical missionary now stationed at Dahanu, India; Joseph G. Nickey of Modesto, Calif. Three brothers also survive. There are ten grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Brother and Sister Nickey labored faithfully many years and their labor for the Lord is reflected in the lives of their children, grandchildren, and the host of friends who have been made better by having known them.

Bro. Nickey went to his eternal rest on Feb. 5, 1940, at the age of 86 years, 2 months and 24 days, from his home in North Manchester, Ind., where they had resided during the past four and one half years, and where they had hoped to celebrate their sixtieth wedding anniversary on March 2. The prayers of all the saints who knew them go up in behalf of Sister Nickey in her bereavement.

North Manchester, Ind. Flora Ross Bjorklund.

Northall Golden Wedding Bells Ring

Dec. 25, 1939, was a happy day for Brother and Sister Samuel Northall, for it marked the half-century point in their happily married life.

Open house was held on Sunday afternoon, Dec. 24, for some seventy relatives and friends. Their children gave them a beautiful gold cake tray.

Samuel Northall was born at Atticliff in Yorkshire, England, in 1865. Mrs. Northall was born at Black Heath in Staffordshire, England, 1867. They were married at Black Heath in 1889.

In 1904 the couple came to America and settled in Rockford, where they have lived ever since.

Sister Northall was baptized by Elder P. R. Keltner in 1911, and Bro. Northall in 1913. Their five children all have been baptized into the Church of the Brethren.

Mrs. Northall says that Samuel has worked at only four jobs since she has known him: two jobs while in England, the other two here in Rockford. Recently he was retired from the Illinois Central Railroad Company, for which concern he worked the past thirty-two years. This is a record of which any man may be proud.

The Northalls are a Christian couple loved by all who know them.

Rockford, Ill. Ralph L. Fry.

FLORA BJORKLUND

FLORA NICKEY ROSS BJORKLUND was born near Oakley, Illinois, on May 5, 1881, the daughter of Amos and Mary Heckman Nickey. When eleven years old she united with the church at Oakley. In 1899 she went to Mount Morris College, where she studied for nearly four years. She was married to Amos W. Ross on June 12, 1902, near Juniata, Nebraska; they had four daughters. They served in the pastorate at Sterling, Colorado, 1903-1904. In 1905 they went to India and were stationed at Vyara from 1905 to 1913. In addition to her work of teaching she did a great deal of medical work. They started a successful boarding school at Vyara. During their first nine-year term of service about three hundred fifty were baptized; fifty were baptized on one Christmas Day. After their furlough they worked at Bulsar from 1915 to 1922; there she had charge of the widows' home. They returned to America on account of the health of Brother Ross, who, a few years later, died at their home in North Manchester, Indiana. Her second marriage was to John Bjorklund, on August 8, 1929. She continues active in the work of the church at North Manchester.

North China, visited our church and each delivered an address. The subject of Sister Wampler's talk was: "Some of the Customs of the Chinese People." She exhibited a few articles of wearing apparel, which were very interesting. Bro. D. L. Miller, being present, called our attention to the fact that some of the customs of the women of Christian America are as foolish and injurious as the foot-binding practice among the heathen of China. Bro. Wampler's subject was: "Some of China's Christians." Lasting impressions were made on all who heard him speak. The faithfulness and devotion to the Christian religion, on the part of these heathen converts, surrounded by idolatry, puts to shame the indifference exhibited by many American Christians, whose environment has ever been Christian. Dr. Wampler's hospital work affords him a rare opportunity to gain the confidence of the people. This line of work certainly should be encouraged on every mission field.

Brother and Sister Emmert, of India, and their son and two daughters, recently visited us. Sister Emmert is the missionary supported by the Sunday-schools of this District. On account of her broken-down health, she was unable to address us. Bro. Emmert delivered two able addresses on different phases of their work in India. His picture of India's Macedonian call should be a constant appeal to men of means to support that work. It should inspire young men and women to give their lives to that work. Especially are young men greatly needed. An offering was taken, to be forwarded to the General Mission Board.

DEATH OF ELDER S. U. SHOBER

Eld. S. U. Shober died on Thursday, March 27, in the Memorial Hospital of Johnstown, Pa., where he had undergone two operations for internal troubles, aged sixty-five years, eleven months and twenty days. Bro. Shober was the eldest son of George W. and Leah Berkley Shober. He was educated in the common schools and Berlin Normal School, of Somerset County, Pa. At fifteen years of age he began teaching school, which profession he followed for five years.

Sept. 26, 1872, he was united in marriage to Sarah Ellen Kimmel, to which union were born three sons and one daughter, all of whom survive. He is also survived by his wife, seven grandchildren, one brother and two sisters. Two grandchildren preceded him.

Eld. Shober was a faithful worker in the Church of the Brethren, which he made his choice at sixteen years of age. He was elected deacon in the Brothersvalley congregation of Western Pennsylvania in 1880. In 1897 he was called to the ministry, and ordained to the eldership in 1908 by the same church. He had oversight of the Bolivar congregation of Western Pennsylvania from 1908 to 1912. He served as a worthy member of the District Mission Board of Western Pennsylvania for several years. He was always active in the service of the Master, and his departure means the loss of one who always tried to do his share in the work of the church. Funeral services were held in the Pike church on Sunday, March 30, being conducted by the writer, assisted by Eld. W. G. Schrock. Interment was made in the Pike cemetery.

Berlin, Pa. Lewis S. Knepper.

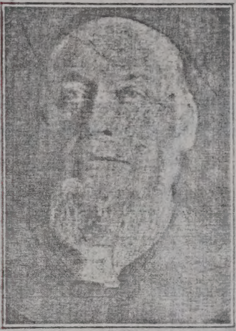
IN MEMORY OF OUR BELOVED FATHER

James Rufus Henricks, son of Elisha and Hannah Henricks, was born in Woodford County, Ill., March 30, 1859. In 1880 he married Christena Waggoner. To this union were born ten children, two of whom died in infancy. They made their home near La Place, Ill., until 1901, when they moved to Wichita, and later to Caldwell, Kans.



James Rufus Henricks

At twenty-one years of age he united with the Church of the Brethren and the following year was elected to the office of deacon. He was a great Sunday-school worker, serving as superintendent for a number of years while living in Wichita and also in his home congregation. Although he was never called to the ministry, yet he often taught, admonished and encouraged those who were starting out on the Christian way. He was very fond of music and led the song service in many revivals.

He died Dec. 19, 1918, of heart failure. His wife preceded him about two years ago. He never gained earthly riches, his whole desire being to lay up treasure in the heavenly home. He was a kind, loving husband and father, and will be mised by all who knew him.

Caldwell, Kans. Minnie Henricks.

Ruth Leona Derringer Yoder was the daughter of Jesse Theodore Derringer and Mary Ann Luchsinger. She was born in Van Buren Township in Ohio on June 21, 1908. She had 3 brothers; Edison, Orville and Jesse, Jr. Three other siblings had died as infants. They were Earl Monroe, James Robert and Dorothy Irene. Ruth married Jesse Yoder on November 23, 1927. She passed away on July 19, 1933 after having had a caesarian section on July 16th and then developed uremic poisoning. I'm not sure if the baby survived. My Mother, her cousin, thought not. Ruth was buried at Lower Stillwater Cemetery on July 22, 1933.

MRS. VICTOR PLETCHER

Mrs. Laura H. Petcher, 96, 2400 College Ave., died at 5:09 a.m. today in Goshen General Hospital where she was a patinet three days.

Born Aug. 23, 1890, in Flora, she was married Nov. 20, 1915, to Victor Pletcher. He died Feb. 22, 1942. She moved here from Florida in 1972, was a homemaker and a member of the Goshen City Church of the Brethren.

Surviving are a daughter, Mrs. Clifford (Thelma) Clark, Goshen; three grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; a sister, Mary Hibschman, Akron; and a brother, Harry Hoover, Pendleton.

Friends may call from 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Tuesday at Yoder-Culp Funeral Home. Services will be held at 10 a.m. Wednesday at the funeral home. The Rev. Phyllis Carter, pastor of Goshen City Church of the Brethren, will officiate at the service. Burial will be in Olive Cemetery.

Memorials may be directed to Goshen City Church of the Brethren.

TAKES OWN LIFE

David Wolf Ends Earthly Existence by Hanging

David Wolf, the well known Dunkard minister, residing on a farm about three miles south of Peru, on the Strawtown Road, committed suicide by hanging, Tuesday. The body was found hanging in the barn by Mr. Wolf's son-in-law, about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The family had gone away from home about 10 o'clock and left Mr. Wolf to look after things until their return. He was in his usual physical and mental condition when they left. Mr. Wolf was an old resident and very highly respected. He had been in the ministry for years. No family troubles or financial reverses led to the deed, as he had neither.

The coroner and sheriff were both notified and went to the home. The body was at once taken to the house and the coroner rendered a verdict of suicide by hanging. Deceased was sixty-five years old and the father of seven children. The funeral will probably be held Friday.

ANOTHER ARTICLE

Elder David B. Wolf, the son of the deceased Elder John Wolf, was borned in Washington county, Ohio, June 14, 1851, departed this life September 19, 1911, aged sixty years, three months and five days. At the age of two years he and his parents moved to Miami county, Ind. of which county he has been a continual resident in and near the present homestead.

He was united in marriage to Barbara Arnold, April 4, 1872 and to this union was borned three children, Charles Wolf, of Lamoure, N. D. John Wolf of the nearby vicinity and Emma, she with her mother having preceeded him to the spirit world in the year 1878.

He again was united in marriage to Elizabeth Miller, October 6, 1878 and to this union were borned seven children Mrs. Peach Coblentz, Mrs. Lora (Cora) Greer, Mrs. Frances Zerbe, Walter, Omer, William and infant son; William and the infant were called to rest in their infancy.

Brother Wolf was impressed by the convicting spirit, to accept in his early youth to which he surrendered and connected hisself with "The Church of the Brethern", at the age of seventeen.

Samuel E. Wood, son of Steven and Nancy Wood, was born in Franklin Co. Va., Aug 5, 1852, died at his home in Bunker Hill, Ind, Oct. 1, 1921, aged 69 years, 1 month and 25 days. He was married to Martha F. Meadors, Dec. 24, 1874, to this union was born three children, Mrs. Toney Engel, Mary Woods of this place and Sally Wood deceased. Mr. Wood and family came to Bunker Hill in 1895 and he worked for the late A. L. Weckler and in 1902 begin working for Mr. Heard and continued until his health failed him, he has been confined to his home the past three years.

The funeral of Emanuel Worl, aged fifty-nine, who died at the asylum in Logansport Thursday, was held at the home of Harry Worl in Peru, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. S. H. Marquis, of Indianapolis, formerly of this place, is a daughter. Oct. 1917

Elder David B. Wolf, the son of the deceased Elder John Wolf, was borned in Washington county, Ohio, June 14, 1851, departed this life September 19, 1911, aged sixty years, three months and five days. At the age of two years he with his parents, moved to Miami county, Ind., of which county he has been a continual resident in and near the present homestead.

He was united in marriage to Barbbra Arnold, April 4, 1872 and to this uuion were borned three children, Charles Wolf, of Lamoure, N. D., John Wolf, of the nearby vicinity, and Emma, she with her mother having preceeded him to the spirit world in the year 1878.

He again was united in marriage to Elizebeth Miller, Oct. 6, 1878 and to this nnion were borned seven children Mrs. Peach Coblentz, Mrs. Lora Greer, Mrs. Frances Zerbe, Walter, Omer, William, and an infant son; William and the infant were called to rest in their infancy.

Brother Wolf was impressed by the convicting spirit, to accept in his early youth to which he surrendered and connected hisself with "The Church of The Brethern", at the age of seventeen.

In the year 1878 the church to which he connected hisself, found him worthy to be called to the deacon's office. Showing his willingness to serve in this office, the church found it necessary in September 1879, to call him to the first degree ministry. Being submissive in this calling in the year 1883 the church felt to advance him to the second degree ministry.

He now feeling his responsable position began an active work and in March 1888, was ordained to the full ministry. In the year 1895 he was called to take the oversight of the Santa Fe church, the church of which he has been a life long member..

Brother Wolf had won the confidence of all in the country in which he so long resided, being an obliging and indulgent neighbor.

He leaves to mourn their loss, one sister, Mrs. Lucy Cassa, Jasper county, Ind., a wife, seven children, eleven grandchildren, the church and a host of relatives and friends.

TAKES OWN LIFE

David Wolf Ends Earthly Existence by Hanging.

David Wolf, the well known Dunkard minister, residing on a farm about three miles south of Peru, on the Strawtown road, committed suicide by hanging, Tuesday. The body was found hanging in the barn, by Mr. Wolf's son-in-law, about 1 o'clock, in the afternoon. The family had gone away from home about 10 o'clock and left Mr. Wolf to look after things until their return. He was in his usual physical and mental condition when they left. Mr. Wolf was an old resident and very highly respected. He has been in the ministry for years. No family troubles or financial reverses led to the deed, as he had neither. The coroner and sheriff were both notified and went to the home The body was at once taken to the house and the coroner rendered a verdict of suicide by hanging. Deceased was sixty-five years old and the father of seven children. The funeral will probably be held Friday.

Mrs. Ella Hilligoss Wallace, aged twenty, died at the hospital in Peru Friday of petitonitis. Mrs. Wallace was operated upon some time ago and seemed to get along nicely, but returned to the hospital recently, where she died. Mrs. Wallace lived at North Grove when a girl, and was well known in Bunker Hill, having made her home with several different families here.

The funeral was held at the Christian church in Peru Sunday, conducted by Rev T. J. Brock. Interment in Mount Hope. Oct. 1917

FORMER BROOK RESIDENT DIES

Andrew Arnold former resident of this place died last Saturday after an extended illness. Mr. Arnold and his family left here over thirty years ago.

The body was brought to the Hershman Funeral Home. Services were held at the Methodist Church Tuesday afternoon with burial in Riverside Cemetery. The obituary which was read at the funeral was as follows.

Andrew Elmer Arnold second child of A. H. and Suzie (Wolf) Arnold, was born in Wabash County, on April 8, 1875. While he was still a boy he came with his parents to Jasper County, where he grew to manhood.

Mr. Arnold was married to Miss Winnie Dewees in Rensselaer on January 19, 1898. After his marriage he engaged in farming, living for several years in the Brook community. In the year 1907, he with his family moved to North Dakota, where he lived until he recently moved to Elgin, Ill. He died of a complication of diseases early in the morning of Saturday, November 23, 1940, at the age of sixty-five years, seven months and fifteen days.

He is survived in his immediate family by his wife, a daughter, Myrta Irene, and four sons Jesse Andrew, Kenneth Edwin, Ivan Berl, and Clifford Bernard. Many other relatives and friends survive.

The deceased maintained a well balanced life in a world filled with perplexities, and manifested his faith in the Supreme Being by maintaining member ship in the Church, by attendance upon religious services, and by maintaining happy social relations with his family and with his friends and neighbors.

WINNIE DEWEES ARNOLD OBITUARY

Winnie Dewees Arnold, daughter of Jesse and Margaret (Fisher) Dewees was born in Logansport, Indiana, Nov.16th,1874 and died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Dewees, Feb.13, 1945, aged 70 years, 2 months and 25 days.

Her early lives were spent in Jasper and Newton Counties.

In 1898 she was united in marriage with Elmer Arnold, who proceeded her in death.

To this union were born five children who survive, namely: Myrta Arnold Tilden, of Tuscan, Ariz., Jesse, of Wilkes Barre, Pa., Kenneth, of Arlington Heights, Ill., Ivan, of Eugene, Ore., and Clifford of Omaha, Neb., and eight grandchildren.

In 1908 she and her family moved to Larimore, N.D., and remained in that vicinity until her husband's health failed, and they came to the home of their son, Kenneth in Elgin. Since that time she spent her time in Des Moines with her daughter who lived there until recently. In Elgin with her son's family or visiting other relatives.

In October 1944 she came as a companion to Mrs. Ida Dewees and remained there until the time of her death.

She is also survived by three brothers, Wm Dewees of Mt. Vernon, Wash., Frank of Brook, and Clay Dewees of Rensselaer, nieces, nephew, and a host of friends.

She was never happier than when she could help someone, and her first thought was for the welfare of her family.

She was a member of the Methodist Church in Emerado, N.D., and often spoke of her assurance of her life after death.

We will not think of her as dead
We'll meet some golden day
And until then, we will only think
That she is just------ away.

Out of town relatives attending the funeral were Mrs. Myrta Tilden, Tuscan, Ariz, Jesse Arnold, Wilkes Barre, Pa., Mrs. Kenneth Arnold and sons Richard and Robert, Ivan Arnold, Eugene, Ore., Clifford Arnold, Omaha, Neb.; Mr. And Mrs. Burrough, Dr. and Mrs. Carol Burrough, Mr. And Mrs. John Wolfe and daughter, Clyde Wolfe and Mary Jane, Mr. and Mrs. John Greer, Mrs. Peaches Cobientz, and Mrs. Frances Zorbe, of Frankfort, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dewees and Marvin, Mrs. Gaylord Dewees, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Michael, Lawrence Dewees, Mrs. Ethel Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Crawford of Rensselaer, Donald Dewees and Mr. Tom Furgeson, Crown Point, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Dunn, Fair Oaks, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Crawford, Harvey, Ill., Jennings Crawford, Blue Island, Ill; Mrs. Bertha Holley and Mrs. Pauline Hoskinson, Chicago, Ill.;
Dr. and Mrs. H. Hayden and son, Wilmington, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lernel and Larry, Griffin, Ind., and Suzie and Inez Lowe of Goodland.

CARD OF THANKS

From the depths of our hearts we want to thank the friends for their sympathy and kindness since the death of our love one. And to the ladies who so graciously took care of the dinner on Sunday.

The Arnold family and the Dewees families.

notes on Susan Arnold's family

Hi Delores,

I got your mail this afternoon. Many thanks for what you sent. I already had the Hankemeir, I was going to send you copies of them. I wrote to one of their daughters, and I heard from her by E-mail. She was going to talk to the other siblings and was planning on sending information on the family. She has health problems and sounds like she is house bound, and isn't on the computer much. I'm hoping we'll get something, but not counting on it.

I really liked all the info on the Greer's, not finding them was bugging me.

Here are a few things I've found.

4.7.45.4 Bertha Elizabeth Arnold Holley, mother Susannah Wolf and Andrew Arnold, born 1879 9/29/1897, died 3/10/1970. She's buried in Shiloh Cemetery, Fruitland Park, Florida, that's near Leesburg.

Her son Victor R. Holley, also is there, born 1/8/1913 died 3/23/1969.

Her daughter Pauline Haskinson also there, born Sept. 18, 1904, died December 1984.

Pauline's husband Edwin Haskinson born June 15, 1903 died July 22, 2000.

Benjamin Earl Wolf, son of Walter Oren Wolf and Clara Ada Jenkins born 9 Feb 1914 died 23 Feb 1993, married Bettie Briton, she was born 22 May 1919 died 26 Oct 2002.

Emil A. Wolf, father John A. Wolf and Nora Louise Mort, born Feb 15, 1920, died April 3, 2005 in Venice, Sarasota County, Florida.

Clara Allen Dover, mother Bertha Arnold Holley, father Charles L. Holley she was born Feb. 8, 1900 died March 8, 1971 in Lake County, Florida, she was 71 when she died.

John Casey, Susannah's 2nd husband is buried in Fair Oaks, hope to get the date of his death. His son Ray Casey is also buried there, hope to get the date of his death.

asey

Believe Fawn Casey had two husbands the first Patti Onofries who she married on 24 June 1918. This was in Grant County, Indiana. I think she met him while visiting her dad at the Veteran's Hospital. Her second husband was Clement Hendershot who she married on March 13, 1935 in Newton County, Indiana. Her real name was Yvonne Marie, not Fawn Marie, however, her gravestone has Fawn on it, census reports have Fawn on them, and Ist marriage. I think it was a nickname and the for the most part forgot it wasn't her real name. My grandmother bought the gravestone years after she died.

I'm trying to figure out how to get obits out of Florida, plan on writing to the researcher I have used for getting them out of the Chicago papers, she lives in Florida.

Casey has an interesting family, he came from Ohio, think he moved to Indiana because his brother moved there.

Won't write any more, we are getting a nasty storm and I need to shut the computer down.

Many thanks, loved getting everything. It's like finding the mother lode.

RESOLUTIONS AGAINST MILITARISM

The Church of the Brethren has been an organization opposed to militarism in all of its forms from its earliest history. For the reason our Savior taught "my kingdom is not of this world, else would my men fight." And, "Put up thy sword, for they that take the sword shall perish by the sword." It has come to the notice of the Minot church that some students of the University of Ohio have been expelled because of its policy; therefore be it resolved:

That we, The Minot congregation of the Church of the Brethren, assembled in its regular members' meeting, take this method of condemning the practice of the University of Ohio, at Columbus, Ohio, in which a committee of three passes its judgment of whether a student is a conscientious objector, compelling the said student to take military drill arbitrarily against his conscience.

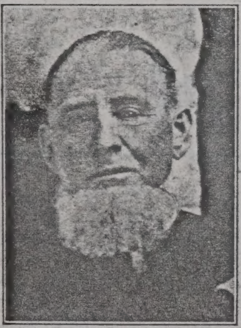
That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the president of the University of Ohio at Columbus, Ohio.

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to The Gospel Messenger, at Elgin, Ill.

That a copy of these resolutions be spread upon our minutes.

Signed: Ray Harris, Elder.
Blanche Zook, Clerk.

DEATH OF GEO. W. SENSENBAUGH



In his home in Cerro Gordo, Ill., on the eve of Jan. 19, the end of a devoted life came to Father Sensenbaugh. He was born near Dayton, Ohio, on Feb. 22, 1857, and at the time of his death was 76 years, 10 months and 27 days old. For nearly sixty years he lived in the bounds of the Oakley and Cerro Gordo churches. He united with the church when a young man and filled many positions faithfully, serving as treasurer of the District Mission Board of Southern Illinois for over twenty years. He was a man of strong convictions and punctual in keeping his appointments.

He was married Aug. 19, 1877, to Catherine Blickenstaff who survives with one daughter, four grandchildren, two great-grandchildren, seven brothers and one sister. A daughter and a son preceded him.

Funeral services were conducted in the Cerro Gordo church by Eld. G. O. Stutsman. Thus another father in Israel has left us, but we are the richer for the example of Christian service and fatherly advice.

Cerro Gordo, Ill. I. D. Heckman.

FRICK GOLDEN WEDDING

On Sunday, Jan. 21, 1934, Mr. and Mrs. W. Ezra Frick of Akron, Ohio, celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. During the morning worship at the First church, a short service was held in their honor in charge of the pastor, Eld. Ira E. Long. The Sunday-school presented them with a beautiful bouquet of cut flowers.

At noon a family dinner was served in the home where Mr. and Mrs. Frick have resided during all of their married life. Covers were laid for sixteen. Mr. and Mrs. Frick have four children: three sons—Harry E. of Akron, Carl E. of Chicago and Walter of Los Angeles,

Local Man, Found Ill In Home, Dies

Milton J. Wolfe, 79, one of the village's most highly respected citizens, died about noon Monday in a local ambulance as he was being taken to a Dayton hospital. The investigation of Dr. Robert Zipf, Montgomery county coroner, disclosed that Mr. Wolfe's death was caused by a cerebral hemorrhage, suffered at his home here, and probably superinduced by excitement and exhaustion resulting from fighting a small fire which occurred in the Wolfe home last Thursday afternoon.

The aged man, who lived alone in a small cottage in the north end of town, was found in a weakened condition Sunday morning by Russell Root when he went to the Wolfe home on an errand. Finding the door locked, and no response to his knock, Root heard Mr. Wolfe inside and discovered that he was unable to get to the door. Summoning Bill Sewert, acting village police chief, the two men forced the front door and found Mr. Wolfe on his hands and knees making an attempt to unlock the door. This was the first knowledge that anyone had of the fire in the home, and it was later revealed that fire had broken out in a day bed Thursday afternoon, creating a smoldering conflagration which Mr. Wolfe had outened himself after a prolonged effort. It is thought that inhaling smoke from the fire in the room, and the resultant nervous tension from the experience contributed to the fatal attack. Mr. Root summoned a physician after he and Mr. Sewert got into the house and notified Mr. Wolfe's sons, and members of the family remained with him until his physician advised that he be taken to a hospital.

Mr. Wolfe, a retired blacksmith, was a native of the Stillwater Junction community, near Trotwood. He learned his trade at Phillipsburg, and lived there and at West Sonora for a number of years following his marriage in 1903 to the former Daisy Recher. He moved his family to Dayton in 1923 and resided there until 1929 when he acquired a farm north of West Sonora. In 1936, he sold his farm to V. L. Sweet, the present owner, and moved his shop to Lewisburg. He retired from active business in 1944 when he sold his home and shop on the National road here to Herbert Smith, the current operator of the business, and moved to the small home on Second street where he resided until his death. Mrs. Wolfe died in 1939.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday afternoon from the Kramer Memorial chapel here, the final rites to be in charge of Leslie Rogers, Dayton, of the Jehovah Witnesses. Burial will be in Roselawn cemetery on the family plot.

Surviving are four sons, Lloyd, Donald and Percy, all of Dayton, and Kenneth, student at Miami university, Oxford; and five grandchildren, Norma Jean, Robert, Tommy, Jimmy and Renee Wolfe.

OBITUARY

MILTON J. WOLFE

Milton J. Wolfe was born Jan. 4, 1876, in the vicinity of Stillwater Junction, Montgomery county, O. He was the son of the late Leonard and Sophia Steiner Wolfe.

On Thursday, March 17, he extinguished a small fire in his home, and it is thought that possibly through over-exertion and excitement, also the inhaling of smoke, may have caused him to become ill. He was stricken with a cerebral hemorrhage and passed away very easily on Monday, March 21, while en route to the hospital, at the age of 79 years, two months and 17 days.

Near the turn of the century, he learned the blacksmith trade, working with Mr. Grant Leas at Phillipsburg, O.

In the year 1903 he opened a blacksmith shop in West Sonora and operated the business for a period of 20 years. On Sept. 12, 1903, he was united in marriage to Daisy Recher, daughter of Charles and Elizabeth Recher. In 1923 they moved to Dayton where they lived until 1929, at which time they moved to the Charles Recher farm north of West Sonora where he opened a shop and also operated the farm. In 1936 they moved to Lewisburg at the corner of Main street and U. S. Route 40, where he opened a shop and continued his trade until the year 1944 when he retired. At this time he moved to his residence at 112 East Second street where he lived at the time of his passing. Mr. Wolfe was wonderfully blessed of the Lord with exceptionally good health throughout his life. His wife, Daisy, preceded him in death in 1939; also a daughter, Nellie, who died in infancy.

There remain to mourn his passing and also to revere his memory four sons and their families, Lloyd, Donald, Percy and Kenneth.

NONAGENARIAN EXPIRES

Jarvis E. Wolfe, 97, one of the College Corner area's oldest residents, died Tuesday of last week at the John Ferris home on RR 2, Camden.

BROTHER OF VERONA'S WM. WONDERLY DIES

Edward J. Wonderly, 61, of Dayton, brother of Verona's William Wonderly, died Saturday at his home after a brief illness. He was born in Piqua and had resided in Dayton 45 years. He was a member of the 25-year club of the NCR.

Funeral services and burial were at Dayton yesterday forenoon.

Surviving are his widow, father, two daughters, three sons, four sisters, three brothers and eight grandchildren.

MOTHER OF LEWISBURG WOMAN SUCCUMBS AT 88

Mrs. Elizabeth Wood, 88, of Dayton, mother of Mrs. Edith Robbins of the Lewisburg community, died shortly before noon Friday at St. Elizabeth hospital, Dayton, after a brief illness. Born in Preble county, she had lived in Dayton 20 years. She was a member of the Dayton Church of the Brethren.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon in the West Alexandria Church of the Brethren, with the pastor, the Rev. John Good, officiating. Burial was in Fairview cemetery, just south of West Alex.

Surviving are two daughters, seven grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (short form). The Robert Clarke Company, Law Publishers, Cincinnati, O.

Last Will and Testament.

I, James Etter of Covington, Ohio being of sound and disposing mind and memory, considering the uncertainty of continuance in life, and desiring to make such disposition of my worldly estate as I deem best, do make, publish, and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby revoking any and all former wills and codicils whatsoever by me made.

First. I desire that all my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as practicable after my decease.

Second. I give and bequeath to Walter Helnick, my grandson, all my household goods that I may own at my decease.

Third. I give and bequeath to my four living Children, Samuel Etter, Henry Etter, Maud Fritch and Rev. J. E. Etter all the balance of my property both real and personal, share and share alike, of which I may be possessed. In case any of my four children should die before my death and have children living at my decease, then in that case I desire that said share of my deceased child shall go to his or her children. But if there shall be no child or children living then I desire that his or her share, if deceased before my death, shall be divided among my children living, share and share alike.

I nominate and appoint my son Jas. E. Etter to be the executor of this Will,

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand, this 3d day of May in the year one thousand nine hundred and Six

William, Leah, Dora, Elmer and Fern Perrin left Ohio to homestead in North Dakota. A Homestead Application issued to William Perrin, 5 July, 1898. (A homesteader must live on and cultivate five years for consideration to own the land). William Perrin of Cavalier County, North Dakota filed final proof to establish the claim to the land on 24 July 1903, House size-16x24' 3 wells Barn size-28x48' Granary-12x24' 120 acres cropped prairie 5 years. Witnesses:Peter Mullenix,Humboldt Bliss,Oscar Anderson,Claus Thorson. (Virgie Perrin has a copy of this).
Final Certificate filed 30, July 1903 of NW 1/2 of Section No. 14, in Township No. 159N, of Range No. 62W, of the 5 principal Meridian N. Dakota, containing 160 acres.
All of their children except George William went to North Dakota.

From the Red River Valley Genealogical Society, PO Box 9284, Fargo, North Dakota, 58106: William and Elmer a son, Perrin are buried in Storlie Cemetery, Storlie Twp, Cavalier Co, North Dakota. Two miles north of the Ramsey Co Line, North Dakota. (Virgie Perrin has a copy of this cemetery).

FROM SALEM CHURCH, NORTH DAKOTA (1910)
On Sunday, Jul 3, Bro. J. Will Shively and wife, in company with the writer, Bro. J. J. Shively, A. B. Hollinger and William Rhoads, drove twenty miles northeast of Newville, to the home of Mr. Parren, who is very low with heart trouble, and a complication of diseases. He is seventy-five years old and requested to be baptized.

We arrived at the home about five o'clock in the evening and found a number of friends and neighbors there. After a season of worship we repaired to the water, which was in a large tank in the yard, where the aged brother was baptized. Though feeble, he stood it well. He was carried into the house by loving hands. He said he felt better than he had in a long time, and the happy look on his face testified to the fact that there certainly is a reality in the religion of Jesus Christ. Then, as we looked in the face of his saintly wife, Sister Parren, and saw how happy she was, we were made to wonder if that was not the happiest day she had ever experienced since she was married. She just realized what she had been praying for during almost fifty years.
Bro. Shively also intended to hold a small communion for the benefit of our aged brother, but it was thought best not to do so at this time on account of his feeble condition.
Brethren and Sisters, let us all pray God that our dear aged brother may be spared many years yet, if not contrary to his Devine will. J. W. Cripe,
Newville, N. Dak, Jul 4.

Obituary

Perrin, Bro. William, born in England Aug 24, 1835, died at his home, near Hampden, N. Dak., Jan. 11, 1911, aged 75 years, 5 months and 15 days. Death was due to the debilities of old age. The deceased had been in feeble health for three years, being confined to the house for the last year. July 3, 1910. he accepted Christ, remaining faithful until the end, and dying in the full assurance of the Lord. He leaves a faithful wife, two sons and four daughters. The remains were laid to rest in the cemetery near Hampden, N. Dak.------ Fern Perrin, Hampden, N. Dak.

PHILIP KUNTZ [I] B: ca 1712 D: ca 1753-54 M:?, Catherine. Philip was probably from the Palatinate in Germany. He arrived in America aboard the English ship Marlborough, Sept. 23, 1741 and signed allegiance to the King of England upon landing in Philadelphia. [from ships records] Normally German immigrants spent some time in Germantown, PA., but Philip may have had a brother or cousin already in Berks Co. PA. [records in Reading PA. as well as ships records indicate a Johann George Kuntz arrived in America on an English ship in 1739] Most of these early immigrants were fleeing the Palatinate during the Thirty Years War 1818-48. Philip settled in the Tulpehocken (Indian word for turtle) region of Berks Co. PA. and on May 12, 1743 was one of the founding members of the Christ Lutheran church in Stouchsburg [Tulpehocken Settlement Historial Society]

Philip had two sons, John Philip Kuntz and John George Kuntz [I] and a daughter, Anna Catherina Kuntz. (Kuntz, Kunz, Kuns, spelling frequently interchangeable) John Philip was confirmed at Christ Lutheran on Pentecost 1762 at age 151/2, placing his birth in 1746-47. John George [I] was confirmed at Christ Lutheran on Pentecost 1766 at age 15 1/2, placing his birth in 1750-51.[Christ Lutheran Church records]

Upon Philips [I] death his wife Catherine married Christian Laubersweiler and apparently gave up her minor children to a guardianship with Peter Kunz and John Trautman. [Administrative and Orphan court records, Reading, Berks Co. Pa. dated Sept. 13, 1756]

12 nov age 84

JOHN GEORGE KUNTZ [I] B: ca 1750-51 D: 1829 M: 4-16-1771 Anna Magdalena Sievers, B:1734, D: 11-28-1824, in Berks Co. PA. (His date of birth uncertain in reference to dates on Grave Marker, in the Carson Valley Church of the Brethren Cemetery, Allgeheny Twp. Blair Co. PA. John George [I] died 11-12-1829 at age 84, placing his birth in 1745 which would be one or two years before his older brother Philip [II] was born 1746-47. The Church Confirmation record would seem to be more reliable and this would place his age at 78 or 79 at his death.) Anna Magdalena died 11-28-1824 at age 90 and is buried next to John George [I] in the Carson Valley Church of the Brethren Cemetery, Blair Co.. PA.
John George and Anna Magdalena had eleven children, one of whom was John George [II]. John George [I] served in the Revolutionary War and probably was with George Washington at Valley Forge.

JOHN GEORGE KUNTZ [II] B: 1-5-1774 D: 1842 M: 1793-94 Elizabeth Cripe B: ca. 1773 D: 6-12-1854 Age 81. Both buried in Mullendore Cemetery, Carrol Co. Indiana.

John George [II] was born in the Frankstown region, Huntingdon Co. (now Blair Co) PA. This is near Altoona PA. They later moved to Indiana.
John Kuns was their son.

JOHN KUNS B: 4-13-1794 D: 10-19-1865 M: 2-13-1816 Hannah Wolf B: 1791 D: 11-1-1858 Burial in Wise Cemetery, Carrol Co. Indiana. John and Hannah were both born in Huntingdon Co. PA. [Henry L. Kuns History indicates that John Kuns was born near Germantown or Brandywine PA.] John Kuns died in Macon Co. Illinois and is buried in the West Franz Cemetery near Cerro Gordo, Illinois. They were married in Montgomery Co. Ohio. [Henry L. Kuns history states that John Kuns moved from PA. at age 21 or 22, travelling down the Ohio River by Flatboat to Cincinnati and thence to a place near Dayton Ohio. On the way, he met Hannah Wolf and they were married before they reached their destination.] (Don Bowman believes that the Kuns family moved to Ohio much earlier; perhaps ca. 1802) John and Hannah moved on to Carrol Co. Indiana in 1825-26 where he built the first Flour Mill near Delphi and also had a Tannery on their farm.

The Dunker Church organized in 1827 often met in the Kuns home. [notes from Henry L. Kuns history] John and Hannah had eight children, among whom was David Kuns. [notes from Delores Baker "Descendants of Leonard Wolf Sr. and Catherine Cripe"] After Hannah died, John married Catherine Shively, a widow B: 1-27-1810 D: 9-22-1875 Burial in La Place Cemetery, Piatt Co. Ill. Catherine was Hannah's niece. They were married 5-12-1861 in Carrol Co. Ind.

DAVID KUNS B: 3-23-1820 near Dayton, Ohio. D: 2-2-1906. Burial, Pomona Cemetery, Los Angeles Co. Calif. M: Margaret Lamb, B: 5-12-1829 D: 10-10-1905. Burial, Pomona Cemetery. They were married 2-6-1845 and lived near the banks of the Wabash River in Indiana across the river from Georgetown, seven miles downstream from Logansport, Ind. David built a Log Cabin near the River and this is where their only child, Henry. L. Kuns. was born. In 1854 they moved to Macon Co. IL. and in 1856 settled in Piatt Co. IL. on a 460 Ac. Farm.

Henry L. and Mary Eoline left immediately after the wedding and travelled to Milmine, Ill. where they made their home until their first child, Henry Arthur, B: 11-29-1871, was about one year old, then they moved to Gilroy Calif. on the new Union Pacific R.R. Four more children were born in Gilroy; Margaret, Lena, David, and Ora Lamb.

ORA LAMB KUNS B: 8-16-1887, Gilroy, CA. D: 2-26-1978, in Santa Rosa, CA. Burial: Pomona Cemetery, M: James Melvin Johnson B: 1-5-1885 in Garrison, IA. D: 7-28-1953, in Santa Rosa, CA. Burial: Pomona Cemetery. Ora and Melvin were married in Lordsburg, (La Verne, CA.) in 1906. They left immediately for Nezperce ID., homeplace of the Johnson family since their move from Garrison IA. in 1897. Two children were born in Nezperce; Eoline Elizabeth, B: 3-7-1907 D: 11-19-1995 Burial in Pomona Cemetery, and Miriam Kathleen, B: 4-27-1908, D: 9-9-1927, Burial in Pomona Cemetery. BIOGRAPHY AND HISTORY OF THE KUNS FAMILY

by Henry Lebosquette Kuns son of David + Margaret Lamb)
s/o Hannah Wright John Kuns
edited by Eric N. Kuns

INTRODUCTION: July 28, 1927
It has long been my desire to compile a general history of our family, as far back as their arrival in America, together with a brief reference (sic) as to the causes leading up to their immigration to this continent. I recognize the many difficulties and the extensive labor that will be necessary in order to write such a history from the very meager records at hand and the general carelessness of people regarding their family history, from which such history must be made in order to be near enough to fact to render it of any value.

Being a busy man now in my 80th year I also realize that if I write it must be done quickly, or I will be called away before I can compile a creditable record of the lives of our ancestors in whom a closer touch, will no doubt give us justifiable pride and pleasure to know that we are descended from Christian origin.

They were plain people conscientious, & self denying to the last degree, leading a simple life going about doing good shunning the allurements of the fashionable world, as evil, and best of all they were of a faith who absolutely would not bear arms, and who during their residence in Germany suffered many indignities and persecution. Through it all they clung to their faith in their Savior, and suffered in silence without resistance, or even entering suit for legal redress, when it might have often brought relief from their sufferings.

It was one of the fundamental principles of their lives, that going to law was wrong, and it has never been done by any of our ancestors to any considerable extent, if at all.

Historical facts are derived mostly from "folk lore" handed down by word of mouth, and very seldom by any recorded sketch of events. To my mind the best biography deals with mens' daily lives and not with the major events of life, alone. Written at LaVerne (California) March 4th 1927.

I have no records farther back than my great grandfather, George Kuns and only very little about him.

His farm in Indiana was located between Rock Creek and the Wabash River, about a quarter of a mile from the bluff skirting the dividing line of the first bottom and the second bottom of the magnificent Wabash River about one mile below the mouth of Rock Creek, in what is probably on of the most firtile (sic) spots to be found in that country. His family was mostly grown to manhood and womanhood when he moved from Dayton Ohio to this location. He owned 160 acres of all bottom land and was a good farmer, as most of his posterity were also. He lies beside his wife, son Daniel & daughter Esther on top of the hill to the south in the Hildebrand graveyard and I spent considerable time trying to locate their graves. I will state later if I found them.

Jacob Kuns his oldest son (actually, Jacob was George Kuns Jr's second son) once owned 640 acres of "second bottom" land about one half mile south of his father's farm. This farm was & still is one of the very best in the region. It was once forest. Jacob & all his sons sold out & started to move (1853) to Texas but only got as far as Missouri, when they suddenly returned to Indiana, only to stay a short time when they all started west again this time to Nebraska. They never unloaded their wagons, until they returned to Logansport Indiana, where they all bought farms and for a wonder Jacob never moved again. He died about 2 or 3 miles west of Logansport at between 80 or 90 years of age & his & his wife's grave is in the Clymer's Station graveyard a few miles south west of Logansport marked by a modest marble shaft which he erected to his wife's memory. Jacob had 4 boys and 1 daughter, as near as I can remember.

His Jacob sons were John, Jacob, George, & Washington. He was the only one of Grandpa George's sons who was a Democrat and did not believe in God, so far as I know. His sons were all Democrats 7 and none ever belonged to any church so far as I have been able to ascertain.

John Kuns his (Jacob's) oldest son married my mother's sister Miss Julia Lamb and no children were ever born to them. My Aunt Julia, however, adopted Frank Kuns, son of George Kuns (Jacob's son), who lost his wife. George, son of Jacob, had 3 sons in all. One Frank, raised by my Aunt Julia, one in the State of Washington and a printer by trade, & one used to be in Philadelphia and I think also a printer. Jacob Kuns' daughter married Dr. Gordon of Georgetown, and had several children but I have long since lost track of all of them.

? Grandpa George's daughter married a man by the name of Grosbeck, and one daughter was born to them. She afterwards married a man by the name of Mirgard. Who had a farm on Rock Creek.

John Kuns son of Grandpa George Kuns, was my grandfather. He was born in Pennsylvania either at Germantown near Philadelphia, or near the Brandywine Valley (this may be an error, as the George Kuns family was in Huntingdon Co. PA by 1794. ENK note) His father remembered distinctly hearing the roaring of cannon at the Battle of the Brandywine in which the British drove Washington off the field but Washington later out maneuvered Cornwallis, rendering this victory of no value to the British.

At about the age of 21 (actually 28, according to my reckoning - ENK), he (George Kuns Jr.) with quite a number of the Brethren to Dayton, going over the Allegheny Mountains to Pittsburgh thence by flatboat to Cincinnati Ohio thence to their destination a few miles west of Dayton. On the way down the Ohio on the flat boat he met the girl who became his wife before they reached their destination. (As this took place in 1802/1803, George Kuns Jr. was already married to Elizabeth Cripe, so this part of the story is a little off - ENK.)

He lived a few years near Dayton and then took up his wife & little ones that were born at Dayton loaded them into an old Pennsylvania wagon bed with a large top pulled by about 4 horses and journeyed to Indiana, having previously made the trip through the almost trackless forest with very indifferent roads, as far westward as Delphi, which is in the Wabash Valley. My father often used to wonder how he ever found the way there & back (1825) to Dayton & having made the rip both ways in safety how he ever found his way again through almost trackless forests to the land he had located.

There was a perpetual spring branch that headed on his land, and he was engineer enough to locate his house, so he could pipe water from the spring to the house which he built, and near which a permanent home was built and still stands. They arrived late in the spring, cleared some ground, put in corn, potatoes & vegetables, built a log cabin and a log barn. Planted their apple seeds & pear seeds and probably a few trees from which to get cions (sic) so that they could soon have an orchard. They fenced their home, so the cows & horses would not stray, developed water, burned a kiln of brick, made shingles to cover his house which he built the following spring. Hauled limestone from the Wabash River, burned his line out & hauled logs to a water mill & built a house which is still standing with walnut doors & finish throughout, with cellar, spring house, wash house, fountain pump. How many young men now days would tackel (sic) such a job!

The damp swamp lands were filled malaria, typhoid and all kinds of deadly germs. Many localities were subject to milk sickness and it was very deadly whole families becoming extinct from using water or eating infested beef. Many of the springs were poisonous, some were cobalt. It was not possible to distinguish these springs from pure water, as the water was clean cold. The effect was to cause stomach trouble which got worse and worse until death supervened. The brethren did not believe in doctors and considering the medical system in vogue at the time - it is probably just as well they did not. Calomel & jalap 10% 10% doses, quinine, opium, and plenty of whiskey constituted the general treatment for everything, with death in a large number of cases, as the consequence.

John Kuns was my grandfather, and was one of the most persistent workers and business men I ever knew in my life, he was never idle a moment. He cleared his 200 acres of land, all but a sugar camp, fenced it with "stake and rider" fences with about 10 to 15 acres to each field so everything that grew could be utilized for pasture.

Every convenience was installed that would save labor. They kept a flock of sheep and grew flax to make their linen & tow to clean their guns, wove all their clothing, both linen and woolen. He also built and owned the tan yards, manufacturing the hides & skins of animals into leather. My father learned the shoemakers trade and assisted in making most of the shoes for the family.

My grandfather built the first flour mill in that region at Delphi on Dear Creek (sic), and when my father was in his teens he used to haul flour to Logansport and even to Michigan City on Lake Michigan, with a two horse wagon, over miles and miles of corduroy (sic) roads made of fence rails laid in the soil, to keep the wagons from bogging down.

They grew their vegetables, made their sugar from maple trees and syrup, than which no better was ever invented by men. Pork was flat boated to New Orleans and all way points down the Ohio River to Cairo, & thence to New Orleans, on the broad bosom of the Miss. Is it not wonderful that men of wonderful manhood and girls fit to be the wife of a prince grew to maturity amid such surroundings (?). About every two weeks there was a meeting of the brethren at my grandfather's house and after about a 3 hour session of prayer, song, and preaching, everybody from far and near stayed for dinner and spent the afternoon in visiting and conversation while the youths & maidens after cleaning up the dishes and sweeping the kitchens, would sing those dear old time hymns which have given comfort and cheer to many an aching heart, and strength and courage to meet the stress & strain or arduous labor, wasting sickness, and the throes of death.

Death often came to these pioneers, so a cemetery was necessary. So, George Kuns gave a plot of ground on Hildebrand Hill for a grave in perpetuity,* and John Kuns likewise fenced in a plot of suitable ground for a burial place and several of his children and his faithful wife were buried there & rested many years until the fence rotted down and the trees & vines grew up until it was difficult to locate it. The heirs built a new fence with sawed buroak posts and poplar boards, and grubbed out the brush & trees. 25 years more passed away, all the children having moved away to Illinois.

Then John Wise, a cousin of my father who was a man of wealth, all made by he & his two old maid sisters, on their farms, took matters in hand and moved the bodies to a graveyard built & equipped with comparatively modern conveniences, and the graves properly marked and the removal witnessed by John Heckman who lived in Illinois and was the husband of Barbara Kuns, daughter of John Kuns, and sister of my father. This graveyard is known as the John Wise graveyard and is not far from Camden, and has an iron fence around it. I personally never saw it - up to this time.

After the death of my grandmother, my grandfather sold his home and moved to Illinois, so as to be near his children. He made his home with Uncle Lewis and Aunt Catharine (grandparents of Rufus Kuns). He was pretty well broken down, but he farmed 10 acres of corn, and I remember it was the best 10 acres of corn in that region. He helped my father harvest and waded right into the work like - no, not like a young man, but like the hardy pioneer that he was.

As a home builder, he was a complete success, not one of his large household ever strayed away in forbidden paths, and every one of his generation as far as this present generation were members of the Brethren Church and were consistent members and made good with very few exceptions, and his descendants number up to over 177, including grandchildren and great grandchildren.

Soon after his arrival in Illinois Grandfather bought 400 acres of land in the 7 Mile Grove, also known as the Cunningham Grove, located 7 miles S.E. of Cerro Gordo, Illinois in Piatt County. Probably more than 100 of his friends and acquaintances, members of the church of which he was one of the most consistent members followed him to Illinois. The simple life, and the patient painstaking industry of these people soon was manifest in the improvement of this magnificent country.

aching heart, and strength and courage to meet the stress & strain or arduous labor, wasting sickness, and the throes of death.

Death often came to these pioneers, so a cemetery was necessary. So, George Kuns gave a plot of ground on Hildebrand Hill for a grave in perpetuity, * and John Kuns likewise fenced in a plot of suitable ground for a burial place and several of his children and his faithful wife were buried there & rested many years until the fence rotted down and the trees & vines grew up until it was difficult to locate it. The heirs built a new fence with sawed buroak posts and poplar boards, and grubbed out the brush & trees. 25 years more passed away, all the children having moved away to Illinois.

Then John Wise, a cousin of my father who was a man of wealth, all made by he & his two old meid sisters, on their farms, took matters in hand and moved the bodies to a graveyard built & equipped with comparatively modern conveniences, and the graves properly marked and the removal witnessed by John Heckman who lived in Illinois and was the husband of Barbara Kuns, daughter of John Kuns, and sister of my father. This graveyard is known as the John Wise graveyard and is not far from Camden, and has an iron fence around it. I personally never saw it - up to this time.

After the death of my grandmother, my grandfather sold his home and moved to Illinois, so as to be near his children. He made his home with Uncle Lewis and Aunt Catharine (grandparents of Rufus Kuns). He was pretty well broken down, but he farmed 10 acres of corn, and I remember it was the best 10 acres of corn in that region. The beautiful farms, orchards, large well built & well appointed barns, corn cribs, well fenced farms, many hundreds of miles of hedge fences, and as the years passed large well constructed houses, built to last with all the old time conveniences which had characterized the homes they had left in the East.

About the very first thing on the arrival of these brethren, they would arrange for a meeting at which one or more of their speakers would preach. And as I remember some of those simple sermons delivered by the Elder John Metzgar, I am constrained to the belief that that dear good old man preached some of the most heart searching evangelical sermons I have ever heard baring (sic) none. Many a man turned to God, from his sins, because of that man's wonderful eloquent appeals for sinners to come home to God.

Grandfather started life all over again. He selected a beautiful site for a home in the second groath (sic) timber on a creek, where he constructed a magnificent home, with fields, corrals, gates that swing and stayed in place in a walnut grove that nature planted. He had formed many acquaintances who were always impressed with his industry, honesty, and the deep religious reverence in which he held sacred things.

He took unto himself an helpmeet (he was a widower at the time - ENK), a Mrs. Shively of Rossville, Indiana I believe, with whom he lived in great enjoyment several years. She survived him by about 6 or 8 years.

This was during the Civil War, and owing to the changing conditions, variations, and scarcity of labor, farming for several years was not a success. Corn sold at the railroad station delivered at 10c per bushel of 70 pounds. Calico was 15c per yard, shoes 3.50 to 6.00. Wheat was 70 to 80c per bushel, oats 15 to 20c, pork 2 1/2c a pound, so at his death it was found that his estate was insolvent. My father, Uncle Henry Kuns, and Uncle John Heckman were appointed administrators for his estate. They were all very careful business men and by careful managing they sold the property at a slight advance, and paid the greater portion of his debts, some of them long standing, and provided for his widow so that she was cared for comfortably.

After these men had settled up with the probate court and had accounted for everything passing through their hands, his sons and daughters none of whom were wealthy at that time, calculated the deficiency of payment and made it up and paid it all off with interest. I often recall this episode in their lives and am compelled to consider it one of the nicest remembrances of my life. Moreover it was just what their father would have done if he had been in their

I often recall this episode in their lives and am compelled to consider it one of the nicest remembrances of my life. Moreover it was just what their father would have done if he had been in their place, and any of them in his place. His sterling integrity descended to his sons and daughters.

I will here relate what one of his old time neighbors told me about 30 years after his death. "John Kuns was the best man that ever lived in this region. If any body was sick he and his excellent wife were the very first to extend help. If a young struggling farmer lost one of his horses, John Kuns always had an extra one to sell cheap, or loan to the unfortunate man until he could get on his feet, or if he had no cow, my grandfather would loan him one to furnish milk for himself & family, or if he needed some money he would loan or give it to him."

One thing I will never forget. He pulled my first tooth that ached. He had secured somewhere what they called a turnkey tooth puller. You simply hooked the thing onto the tooth and yanked it out or else yanked the jawbone out. I think he no doubt pulled hundreds of teeth for people from one end of the county to the other for Drs. were scarce & money to pay them was scarcer.

He hooked onto my tooth. I started to scream but by the time the scream came, the tooth was about halfway across the room. My father laughed at me but my grandmother (Hannah Wolf Kuns) stood my friend and told him he should be ashamed to laugh at a little fellow like me. She took me into her great powerful arms and wiped away my tears. I am not sure, great hearted woman that she was, that there were tears in her kindly eyes.

My grandfather spent his busiest years finding land for his children (in Indiana - ENK). He located David (the author's father) on the Wabash River opposite Georgetown. Daniel a mile south of Delphi. Henry on Wildcat near Rossville, and Lewis on a fork of Wildcat. Aunt Betsy on the Massinirva. Barbara on Wildcat & Hannah - I have forgotten. To boys 160 acres apiece and to each of the girls 80 acres. This was a very liberal allowance in those days and it took a great deal of industry & economy and self denial to locate and acquire that much land besides his home farm which was considered one of the best in Carroll Co.

Such economic saving as was practices by these old men, is a lost art in this generation. All of his children but two increased their holdings to much more than double and some many times as much before he died. Two of the girls were unfortunate in accumulating, one being bed ridden 18 years, and one married a good man who was an invalid with a large family, but they were splendid women.

Two of the girls were unfortunate in accumulating, one being bed ridden 18 years, and one married a good man who was an invalid with a large family, but they were splendid women.

After my grandfather's second marriage, he built a very fine barn hauling all the lumber from Cerro Gordo in the winter season - much of it in the mud. He lived to use it several years and the Annual Love Feast (church service) held each year by the Brethren was held in it one autumn.

My grandfather was as good a judge of the quality of land and timber as perhaps ever lived in that part of the country. He never picked a poor piece of land in his life. He always picked black walnut sugar trees, ash, elm, burroak, & poplar for farm land, and he could also tell the quality of land by the trees as if they were a written book.

In his latter years he was afflicted with gall stones or stone in the bladder and his sufferings at times were something awful. Once, he was terrible bad sick. It was in mid winter with snow and sleet and Uncle John Heckman and several of his children were at his house expecting him to go any moment, but after a short nap he woke up, called Uncle John to his bedside, and gave him instructions to go out on the porch and get him a saucer full of sour crout and bring it to him cold, and it was sure cold. My uncle brought it and he (grandfather) sat up in bed and ate every bit of it. He had not eaten anything for days & they all thought it would hasten his death, but on the contrary he recovered and lived more than a year.

Another time I was sent to ask him about some business for my father with a man who had bought my father's farm and the man got homesick & his wife was also homesick, and I believe the man & his wife would both have died had he not been able to get back to Ohio where he came from. He insisted on my grandfather going to meet my father and sick as my grandfather was he was bound to go when he found out he was wanted. So I caught his old dun mare and saddled her up for him and he rode 2 miles & saw my father and attended to the business and I returned with him to his home. At one of the houses on the way a woman was cooking some roasting ears. He stopped and asked her if she would give him one to eat with a little salt. He rode along and eat a great big ear of field corn. I was sure it would make him worse. On the contrary, it helped him at once. He never touched liquor and absolutely would not take medicine. He would send for the Dr. for his wife, but not for himself.

In his life he had the Typhoid Fever, the bilious fever, and the milk sickness from which few people ever recovered, besides other serious illnesses and he positively refused to take even the tea & herbs the old grandmothers used to be so free to prescribe for the ills of flesh. But none for him. Of all the men I ever knew he had the most exalted regard for the gentler sex, and he said he always liked the women because his mother was a woman.

Before closing this biography I would say to all my children & descendants that if they can see through and beyond this imperfect description of this man of God I have only feebly described and catch the view of his noble life and model their own lives after the beautiful life he lived in simple faith in God, it will be the greatest legacy they could ever receive in this world and in the world to come eternal life. And to the maidens & women that they may remember his reverence and appreciation of women. I never knew him to speak a cross word to my grandmother or to his second wife. He was loved by everybody everywhere he (was) known.

My grandmother Kuns was one of the Wolf girls. Maiden name - Hannah Wolf. The Elder Wise married a Wolf girl (Elizabeth Wolf). Leonard Blickenstaff married a Wolf. (Actually, Joseph Blickenstaff married Barbara Wolf - ENK). The Elder Shively married a Wolf (Esther Wolf). There were 2 Wolf boys, maybe 3. (Hannah Wolf Kuns' brothers were Isaac, Leonard Jr., and Jacob - ENK). She (Grandmother Kuns) was a very large woman weighing 220# and in her prime was a perfect giant. It is related that when they were raising a barn, Grandpa had a top made of sugar tree to set on top of a fountain pump as a cover. It probably weighed about 50# & being recently shaped into an octagen (sic) point about 2 feet high it was a difficult thing to handle because the sap was very slick. Some of the men who thought they were extra stout tried to take one hand and grasp the small end & set it up on the fountain pump. Not a man could even lift it with one hand. In moving it about, they got it in her (Grandma's) way. She took it in one hand and placed it in position on top of the pump about 5 feet high without any effort.

She was a good mother, for the successful life of all her children proves that. She did not speak much Eiglish (sic). My mother could not speak Germain (sic). They would talk to one another she in Germain & my mother in English for hours with the most intense satisfaction.

David Kuns (the author's father - ENK), son of John Kuns was born in the year 1820 and as before stated, came to the wild recesses of the Indiana forest in 1826, being 6 years old.

He grew up to manhood in such surroundings as do not now exist but if a man is born with a strong body and a clear head he can grow to manhood anywhere and be successful provided he has proper training and is brought up reverence holy men, good women, and The Bible. There were only 3 books in my grandfather's library; The Bible, The Works of Josephus, and a hymn book. The New Testament, Webster's Elementary Spelling Book, and Rays 3 Part Arithmetic, and the Old English Reader. If for any reason their teacher would not stand for their isolation from classes in the regular school books, they were immediately called home and put to work where they could learn something. My father studied arithmetic as far as the "Double Rule of Three" and geography and the usual school books used in the schools of the times. I suppose he got on the average 3 days schooling in a week, but he wrote a good hand (and) was a fairly good speller. Knew nothing what ever about grammar & thought the world was flat and could prove it by scriptures. Be it said however that he modified many of his views as the years went by.

He did not have much use for higher education as too many of the boys who were sent to high school or college were no acc't to work at farm work & he was a farmer, first , last, & always. He also modified his views regarding education very materially in his later years. So at the proper time I will try to write of the results of this change in his mind. He was married Miss Margaret S. Lamb in the year of 1846. He immediately moved onto the land his father gave him on the Wabash River opposite Georgetown, 7 miles below Logansport. Cleared several fields, made rails, & fenced most of it. My father cleared a field on the bank of the Wabash River and lived in a log house not many rods from the river bank. There I was born Nov. 19th 1847, on Friday morn at 30 minutes past 12 a.m. My mother was married when 16 years old, and she went to the margin of the grave to bring me into this world. Her life as well as mine was in doubt for several weeks.

My Aunt Mary Lamb, Uncle William Lamb's wife, told me the last time I ever saw her that she undoubtedly saved my life, for my mother was too sick to care for me and I was so near to perishing for suitable food & proper care that every one had given me up as bound to die but 'tho not a mother herself she had motherly instincts and had, had some experiences with children, and no doubt was the means of saving my life.

About a year after I was born my father built to completion a hewed log house that was still standing 65 years after it was built. In 1851, my father had managed to cut timber from a field, haul some of the best logs to a sawmill, had it cut for 1/2, had got out and hewed logs for a bank barn, 40' x 6 with 16 foot corner posts, covered with walnut shingles & sided with poplar boarding. Basement fitted for stabling stock. A large threshing floor. Grain bins and a wonderful mow for hay, and room enough to stow away oats and wheat to await the threshing machine. This barn was also standing in 1914, when sixty three years after it was built. Such a barn built as it was would cost at least 5000$ now. I heard him say the money cost of this barn was less than two hundred dollars.

I heard him say the money cost of this barn was less than two hundred dollars.

Money was very scarce and all kinds of products were very cheap. The first year of their married life my father said he did not handle 20$ all told. But they raised their meal and Grandfather Kuns bought a cow for $7.00 for them and they had a few sheep & spun stocking yarn and had mutton & hogs did well and fattened on beach nuts & hickory nuts.

There were no butcher bills to pay and they made several barrels of Maple sugar every year. Several years before his marriage my father had planted apple trees that he had grown from the seed and grafted to the best standard varieties, and fruit was plentiful and of superior quality. Wild cranberries abounded in the swamps a few miles back from the river, also huckleberries, the finest I ever saw anywhere. Gooseberries grew wild in great abundance. Wild plums were also very plentiful and of superior quality. Walnuts, hickory nuts, brillesnuts (?) & hazelnuts abounded everywhere also the delectable beech nuts. They took wheat to the mill and had it ground on shares, also corn & buckwheat. They sure lived well, so far as food & clothing was concerned. But the increase in the value of land was the only source of wealth in those days.

In about the year 1851, my father and Dr. Gordon who had a general store on the Wabash and Erie Canal, built as equal partners a warehouse 60' x 80' square with over jutt on (the) canal so Boats could be loaded with grain in bulk method, shoveling. The grain was all brought into the 3rd story over a causeway about 40 rods long built strong enough to carry a locomotive, in a push cart on two wheels, by man power.

The grain much of it was delivered in the winter after the close of navigation and stored until the canal opened in the spring, when it could be shipped to Toledo and by lake vessels or sea going ships all over the world. This was a big boost from the days when they hauled wheat to Michigan City by wagon. Times began to improve and land buyers seeking homes ready built & well improved began to come from Ohio & Pennsylvania in large numbers. One day an old Pennsylvania dutchman drove up and asked my father if he would sell his farm. My father asked him to look it over, and after going over it once he wanted to know the price. My father said $4,000.00. I'll take it, said the dutchman so we were out of our home in a minute.

My father being owner of half interest in the warehouse & grain business at Georgetown, soon after moved to a little house in Georgetown. This was just after the election of Franklin Pierce as President of the United States. I was in my 5th year and the first election I remember. My aunties helped make a muslin American flag 16" x 32" and there was a pole raising at Georgetown by the Whigs who were strong for General Winfield Scott, Hero of the Mexican War. My father soon moved to my grandfather's for a month or so while he went with Grandfather as far west as Kansas & Nebraska seeking a prairie farm and located one in the month of May, I think it was 1853, a farm on the Sangamon River in Macon County Illinois, bought it at 10c per acre. After taking my mother west to see her future home, harvest was ready to cut and my father helped cradle my grandfather's wheat crop, and in August we started with two yoke of oxen to one wagon, one two-horse wagon, and a one-horse buggy on our way westward.

It took us 10 days to make the trip, as the ox wagon was slow. I shall never forget that trip nor how glad I was to get to the beautiful place my father had selected. But as I was now quite a boy & had to be reckoned with I will begin a special chapter to give in detail the time I had with my aunties while my father & mother were gone to Illinois, only two weeks. This I will reserve for a special chapter.

The influx of eastern people caused the land in Central Illinois to increase in value very fast and in 2 years land had doubled in value and in some cases, had doubled twice. Fortunes were made overnight. Everything was booming. It was a wonderful sight to see thousands of geese and sandhill cranes & ducks by the tens of thousands. Prairie chickens would light on top of the building. Rabbits & quails were plenty and I remember to have seen eleven red deer pass within gunshot of our house. The open prairie was strewn with bones said to have been buffalo bones from a very cold winter, in which a snow fell over 4 feet in depth and the buffalo starved to death. These bones were probably of cattle that had died.

My earliest school days were to me a most serious affair. I had somehow become obsessed with the idea that too much education wasn't good for a little boy. Fishing along the brooks or in the canal was much better sport and besides I had heard in circumstantial detail considerable conversation regarding the way the teachers would lick a little boy if he did not obey, or failed in having a perfect lesson, or whispered in school.

So when we moved to Georgetown my father sternly informed me I must go to school and I must go early in the morning. So I started to school which was only about 1/3 of a mile from our home. When I arrived at the school house there was only one boy there and he made it his immediate personal business to show me the various instruments of torture that were used on occasion on unruly children.

As I recall there was a heavy oak ruler, a good sized hazel switch, and in one of the rear corners of the school house on a shelf was the dunce cap which was made of paste board and carefully lettered "DUNCE CAP".

This was the boogie that caused my young inexperienced heart to sicken and I struck a bee line for home. My mother saw me coming and told me to run back to school at once as my father was even there in sight and probably would give me a threshing if he found I had come home. I lost no time on the way back and arrived in time to be present when the ruler beat "to books".

I was enrolled and the teacher was very nice to me and I fast lost my fear of the instruments of torture. I started in sitting on an oak slat with round wooden legs bored into the slab with an inch or inch and a quarter auger. Good enough for a child my age to sit on 4 hours in the fore noon and 4 hours in the afternoon, reciting a b c 's twice a day. I went there 'most 2 weeks. Then my father and mother went to Illinois to look over the farm he had bought and I was sent to stay with my grandfather Lamb, my 3 aunts, and grandmother. Grandmother was too fond of me to cross any desire of my heart and I was the only grandchild she had. I was taken to school by my Aunt Louisa who was the oldest girl at home and regularly installed in my school work. I think I had advanced to the first grade.

One day I was not very well and I was sick to see my mother, so my Aunt Louisa concluded that I had better stay home that afternoon, and incidentally, stay in bed if I was sick. Somehow her manner seemed to stir up my spunk, and the next morning when it come school time, I balked & would not go a step. A Miss Fickel and my Aunt Rachel promptly each took one of my hands and my Aunt Louisa brought up the rear, with just a small stick but it was plenty big enough. On the way to the school house we passed a railroad boarding house - there was a railroad being built - I caught sight of a rather old ugly Irish woman coming with a table cloth and a large butcher knife. "Let me have him. I cut his head off & cook him for dinner." I took one look and my obstinacy had faded away. But I never went that way to school again, nor did I ever buck again either.

This little episode in my school life was probably on of the most important single circumstances bearing on my school life. I learned to love my books and to this day never tire of reading scientific treatise or histories of events.

My father soon had his entire farm under cultivation and well stocked with hogs, cattle, good farm horses, chickens, & etc. We however missed lots of conveniences which we left behind us. There was the living fountain on the porch which delivered water for the house and went through the milk house out into the horse trough into a ditch through the feed yards. This running water we missed most of all. The first year in Illinois the creeks all went dry, and wells failed there. In winter the pumps froze up. The fountain pump flowed always. Then there was no maple trees to make syrup & oh how we did long for just a lump of maple sugar, such as we always (previously) had by the bundle. Plums we found along the river & hazel nuts by the sackful, and splendid hickory nuts, & the best of black walnuts.

In 1855 there was one of the finest corn crops Illinois ever had in its entire history. Corn averaged 80 to 100 bushels per acre, and in 1856 the Wabash Road was built and Uncle Daniel Kuns moved out and bought a farm 1 1/2 miles from us, so by degrees we became reconciled to our changed conditions. About the time my father moved to Illinois, land began to advance and at the same time, considerable public land could be regularly entered at a uniform price of 1.25 per acre. Lands that were fenced and had some improvements were much more valuable. In the years following '53 to '58 saw a general advance to about $20.00 for unimproved land to $30.00 for improved land.

One day Elder David Frantz came along and my father who was proud of his farm took him out to show him our farm and came in and told my mother he had sold out at $30.00 per acre. This was the first farm that had ever sold at $30.00 per acre in that region. My father immediately went into Piatt Co. and bought 400 acres of the Baker farm, more land for considerably less money, that was fenced with a hedge fence that was considered the best cattle fence and we immediately moved to Piatt Co. Land did not go any higher but receded in price considerable (sic) during the Civil War. Just about the time the war was at its peak my father bought 320 acres for about 11 $ per acre.

After the war, land again advanced so that in 1870 it was worth from 40 to 50 per acre. Grain was a good price and labor not exorbitant and implements with which to farm were not so high as now. Farming began to pay and banks began to start up in all the small towns. And Illinois has been prosperous until the last year, or about 50 years, excepting an occasional very dry or very wet year. My father owned his home farm and had added 480 acres more to his holdings in 1892 and when he died his land was worth considerable (sic) more than 100$ per acre. The price of this property now is not greatly different to its value in 1900 to 1906. Land generally all over the United States has been entirely too high and it must recede in price in my opinion but it will in Illinois be a good investment.

In 1892 my father came to California and entered into a scheme to found Lordsburg College. He was the only one of the original incorporators and directors that did not die or go broke. He and Mr. Daniel Houser held on together a long time & finally Mr. Houser sold out to my father and J.S. Kuns, a son of Henry Kuns, my uncle.

At the time my father died Proff. Hannawalt had the property leased of the association and he finally gave it up because it was too much of a task for one man to carry. Then a new association was formed with a new board of directors and the controlling interest was transferred to them. Several hundred students have been helped to obtain a good education at a moderate cost and the property has advanced probably to the value of $100,000.00 and best of all so far as known, every one who was a student for a considerable time has made good. Some are teachers in Grammar or High School and are found in every branch of church and missionary work. Students of Lordsburg College have succeeded. So I consider that one of his (David Kuns') greatest works in this life was working to found this college. It has now got on its feet and will endure for ages to come. My dear father and mother devoted about 10 years of ardeous (sic) labor and very large sums of money to promote the work which in the face of the attitude of the Brethren Church could only be classed as purely missionary work, and that almost without hope of final success. But God has seemingly set the seal of his approval on the work by enabling it to acquire permanent standing in the church, state, and nation.

None of my father's descendants were taken by death until he (father) was about 85 years old, and the first to be called home to God was my daughter, Margaret's little boy, Wendell, who was well until he was three months old when he died of acute pneumonia. Four months afterward, my youngest son, David was called to his heavenly home by Typhoid. Four months later my beloved mother died of malignant cancer, and four months later my father was called from the cares of life. My father and mother now have living 28 descendants. The dead are all buried in Pomona Cemetery, excepting two great great grandchildren who were I think buried at (?)

My father was a man of very strong character and was exceeding kind to deserving relatives who were poor, and when traveling through the region where any of his relatives lived, he always stopped to visit them and if any of their children were shabbily dressed he would buy them a suit of clothes all around, from the mother of the family to the youngest baby. But they (Mother and Father) always had to make their own clothes. He expected every one to work and had no patience with those who were indolent or dishonest.

He was appointed guardian by the Probate Court of Piatt Co. for 3 of the Mitchel boys whose parents had died within a week or so of one another, and he and a Mr. Evans were called by the Probate Court to take care of their property. He managed it so well that the money left and the nut money saved furnished enough to buy each of them some land and considerable money besides. These boys have all done very well.

He managed it so well that the money left and the nut money saved furnished enough to buy each of them some land and considerable money besides. These boys have all done very well.

I should also mention that $1,200.00 of this money was in a loan which was made before the father of these boys died, and which could not be collected. My father, in settling with the court, voluntarily made it good. Of this I think we may all be proud, and places our progenitor in a class higher than ordinary men. My father was also security for a company composed of Rea, Rickets, & Kuns, though my father never had anything to do with the management of affairs excepting to pay the debts.

I have somewhere in my vault $56,000.00 worth of cancelled notes all of which he adjusted and by doing so, he secured the release of both Mr. Rea & Mr. Rickets. This adjustment was made during the Civil War and just after he had the Typhoid Fever. The fever left him with chronic diarhea (sic) which never entirely left him. I have often wondered how a man could go through such a strain of business with men who were cold blooded and merciless and not give up and die. It was no doubt the great and abiding love for my dear invalid mother that sustained him through the awful struggle of those years of toil, sickness, and business worry. But after the war, I was old enough to work and he and I never let any body beat us working at any kind of farm work or rough construction work such as building corn cribs.

Hiram and Catherine Wise, natives of Germany, desiring to seek their fortunes in the new world set sail for America and settled in Germantown, Maryland, in 1748. Jacob Wise, a descendant of the foregoing was born in Carroll Co. Ind. on Dec. 28, 1844, a son of Leonard & Mary Iman Wise. In 1869 Jacob Wise came to Cerro Gordo, Ill., where he met and married Elizabeth Kuns, d/o Lewis & Catherine (Wolf) Kuns and settled on a half section of raw prairie land 4 miles north of Cerro Gordo. In 1886 they built a nine room house to accomodate their family.

Eugene P. Neff, s/o Charles & Mary Jennings Neff. When about 6 yrs. of age the family moved from Va. to Muncie, Indiana. When about 20 he came to Cerro Gordo. He was a large stock and grain farmer in Willow Branch Twp. In March 1919 the family moved to north edge of Cerro Gordo where his wife Bertha died. Member of Methodist Church.

WOLF/ARNOLD FAMILY OBITUARIES

X Andrew Elmer Arnold born April 8, 1875, died November 23, 1940

64.7.4.5.2

Former Brook Resident Dies

Andrew Arnold former resident of this place died last Saturday after an extended illness. Mr. Arnold and his family left here over thirty years ago.

The body was brought to the Hershman Funeral Home. Services were held at the Methodist church Tuesday afternoon with burial in Riverside Cemetery. The obituary which was read at the funeral was as follows.

Andrew Elmer Arnold second child of A. H. and Suzie (Wolf) Arnold, was born in Wabash County on April 8, 1875. While he was still a boy he came with his parents to Jasper County, where he grew to manhood.

Mr. Arnold was married to Miss Winnie Dewees in Rensselaer on January 19, 1898. After his marriage he engaged in farming, living for several years in the Brook community. In the year 1907, he with his family moved to North Dakota, where he lived until he recently moved to Elgin, Ill. He died of a complication of diseases early in the morning of Saturday, November 23, 1940, at the age of sixty-five years, seven months and fifteen days.

He is survived in his immediate family by his wife, a daughter, Myrta Irene and four sons Jesse Andrew, Kenneth Edwin, Ivan Berl, and Clifford Bernard. Many other relatives and friends survive.

The deceased maintained a well balanced life in a world filled with perplexities, and manifested his faith in the Supreme Being my maintaining membership in the Church, by attendance upon religious services, and by maintaining happy social relations with his family and with his friends and neighbors.

Richard Kenneth Arnold born August 10, 1929, died September 10, 1949

64.7.4.5.2+.+

Richard Kenneth Arnold was born August 10, 1929 in Elgin. He passed away at his home in Mt. Prospect Saturday afternoon, September 10, at the age of 20 years and 1 month.

Dick graduated from Arlington Heights Township high school. He was quite active in music and dramatics while attending high school, especially in choral groups, and was also a member of the cast in the senior class play. Later he attended Ripon College, and was a member of the well known Ripon college choir.

Dick was quite active in church affairs. He was a member of the first M.E. Sunday school in Arlington Heights. Later became a member of the First Church of Christ Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts, and attended the Sunday school of First church of Christ Scientist, in Arlington Heights.

He is survived by his mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth E. Arnold and one brother Robert N. Arnold.

Services were held from Fairbanks Stirlen Funeral Home, Barrington, Tuesday Sept. 13. Reoder Swen Swanson officated. Interment was private.

X Winnie Dewees Arnold born November 16, 1874, died February 13, 1945

64.7.4.5.2

Winnie Dewees Arnold, daughter of Jesse and Margaret (Fisher) Dewees was born in Logansport, Indiana, Nov. 16th, 1874 and died at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Ida Dewees, Feb. 13, 1945, aged 70 years, 2 months and 25 days.

Her early lives were spent in Jasper and Newton Counties.

In 1898 she was united in marriage with Elmer Arnold, who proceeded her in death.

To this union were born five children who survive, namely: Myrta Arnold Tilden of Tuscan, Ariz., Jesse of Wilkes Barre, Pa., Kenneth of Arlington Heights, Ill., Ivan of Eugene, Ore., and Clifford of Omaha, Neb., and eight grandchildren.

In 1908 she and her family moved to Larimore, N. D., and remained in that vicinity until her husband's health failed, and they came to the home of their son, Kenneth, in Elgin.

Since that time she spent her time in Des Moines with her daughter who lived there until recently. In Elgin with her son's family or visiting other relatives.

In October 1944 she came as a companion to Mrs. Ida Dewees and remained there until the time of her death.

She is also survived by three brothers, Wm Dewees of Mt. Vernon, Was., Frank of Brook, and Clay Dewees of Rensselaer, nieces, nephew and a host of friends.

She was never happier than when she could help someone, and her first thought was for the welfare of her family.

She was a member of the Methodist church in Emerado, N.D. and often spoke of her assurance of her life after death.

We will not think of her as dead
We'll meet some golden day
And until then, we will only think
That she is just ---- away

Out of town relatives attending the funeral were Mrs. Myrta Tilden, Tuscan, Ariz., Jesse Arnold, Wilkes, Burre, Pa., Mrs. Kenneth Arnold and sons Richard and Robert, Ivan Arnold Eugene, Ore., Clifford Arnold, Omaha, Neb., Mrs and Mrs burrough, Dr. and Mrs. Carol Burrough, Mr. and Mrs. John Wolf and daughter, Clyde Wolfe and Mary Jane, Mr. and Mrs. John Greer, Mrs. Peache Coblentz, and Mrs. Frances Zerbe, of Frankfort, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Clay Dewees and Marvin, Mrs. Gaylord Dewees, Mr and Mrs. J. David Wolf Ends Earthly Existence by Hanging

David Wolf, the well known Dunkard minister, residing on a farm about three miles south of Peru, on the Strawtown Road, committed suicide by hanging, Tuesday. The body was found hanging in the barn by Mr. Wolf's son-in-law, about 1 o'clock in the afternoon. The family had gone away from home about 10 o'clock and left Mr. Wolf to look after things until their return. He was in his usual physical and mental condition when they left. Mr. Wolf was an old resident and very highly respected. He had been in the ministry for years. No family troubles or financial reverses led to the deed, as he had neither.
The corner and sheriff were both notified and went to the home. The body was at once taken to the house and coroner rendered a verdict of suicide by hanging. Deceased was sixty-five years old and the father of seven children. The funeral will probably be held Friday.

Zerbe, Walter, Omer, William and infant son; William and the infant were called to rest in their infancy.

Brother Wold was impressed by the convicting spirit, to accept in his early youth to which he surrendered and connected himself with "The Church of the Brethern", at the age of seventeen.

In the year 1878 the church to which he connected himself, found him worthy to be called to the deacon's office. Showing his willingness to serve in this office, the church found it necessary in September 1879, to call to the first degree ministry. Being submissive to this calling in the year 1883 the church felt to advance him to the second degree ministry.

He now feeling his responsible position began an active work and in March 1888, was ordained to the full ministry. In the year 1895 he was called to take the oversight of the Santa Fe church, the church of which he has been a life long member.

Brother Wolf had won the confidence of all in the country in which he so long resided, being an obliging and indulgent neighbor.

He leaves to mourn their loss, one sister, Mrs. Lucy Cassa, Jasper County, Ind., a wife, seven children, eleven grandchildren, the church and a host of relatives and friends.

(Error in sister's name, she was Susannah (Suzie) Wolf Arnold Casey)
